A quiet wedding took place at the Baptist church on Wednesday morning last, the 18th, when a niece of the paster, Rev. T. A. Higgins, and daughter of Mr James M. Higgins, of New-port, was united in holy bands to Mr M. A. Buckley, the well-known Hali-fax bookseller. Mr J. D. Medcalfe, leader of the Presbyterian church choir, of Windsor, kindly presided at the organ. The bride was lead to the alter by her uncle, Prof. D. F. Higgins. The happy couple left by the express train on an extended trip to Boston, Chicago, Niagara Falls, and probably Southern California, where they may spend the winter.
