

"BELL" SHOES.

They're so dependably durable. That's a quality people appreciate.

When we sell a "BELL" SHOE, customer "calls again." Not so with shoddy shoes.

"BELL" SHOES are the shoes for looks—they're the shoes for comfort—they're the shoes for wear.

For Sale at Borden's Only.

The three-masted schooner La Plata of St. John is now on the blocks at Kingsport undergoing repairs.

The 47th annual session of the Nova Scotia Central Baptist Association will meet with the church at Perseus, on Friday, June 23rd, at 2 p. m.

Mr. D. A. Mauro has the contract for the erection of a fine large barn for Dr. DeWitt. The building will be 45x25 and will contain all the latest improvements. It will cost $1000 and be completed in August.

See the Solar Acetylene Lamp at the Drug Store. It is the best.

There will be a meeting of the Board of Governors of Acadia University in the chapel of the College on Tuesday, the 6th of June, at 7.30 p. m. The Board will be in session also on Thursday, the 8th, in the library of the College.

The military camp at Aldermost this year will consist of the Kings Canadian Hussars; 68th, 69th, 75th and 93rd battalions comprising 1920 officers and men with 95 horses. They will go into camp on September 12th and remain twelve days.

The Union Bank of Halifax is removing to its new quarters in McKenna Block this week. The bank offices are on the west side of the building and are handsomely and conveniently fitted up. We doubt if any bank agency in the province has superior accommodations.

Rev. J. S. Carruthers, of New Glasgow, occupied the pulpit of St. Andrew's church last Sunday morning and evening. There were good congregations at both services, and the excellent addresses delivered were much enjoyed. The Rev. gentleman is an eloquent and able preacher.

A meeting of the executive council of the School of Horticulture was held on Tuesday afternoon. Prof. Sears was engaged for another year, his salary being increased to $1400. The affairs of the school appear to be in a flourishing condition, and a successful year's work has been done.

Work is going on briskly on Mr. W. S. Wallace's new building and already it gives evidence of what a fine building it is to be. Mr. T. E. Wallace has charge of the work for the contractors, Messrs. Curry Bros. & Bent. The building will comprise two stores and a dwelling and is to be completed early in July.

Miss Elizabeth Trites, of Sussex, N. B., will be the only graduate in piano this year at Acadia Seminary. The graduating recital is to take place this evening. Miss Lida Munro, of Bridgetown, will assist with a number of vocal selections. Private recitals of musical graduates have been introduced into other institutions, but this is the first of the kind at Acadia Seminary. A number of invitations have been issued.

There was a fairly good attendance at St. Andrew's church on Monday evening to listen to the programme of readings presented by Rev. J. S. Carruthers. All those who were present were delighted with the entertainment given. The programme was varied, embracing selections from Shakespeare, Longfellow, Arcturus is an excellent elocutionist and impersonator. His selections from Shakespeare were particularly fine. A pleasing feature of the evening was a very well-rendered vocal solo, "O Dreams," by Miss Annie Murray.

Do you know that you can buy Room Paper cheaper at Wolfville Book Store than at any other place?

The social given by the Y. P. S. C. E. in connection with St. Andrew's church last Friday evening was a very pleasant affair. The hall was decorated with hanging pictures and plants and looked very pretty. Excellent vocal solos were given by Mr. McMullen and Miss Annie Murray. Rev. Mr. Carruthers was present and gave a most interesting address. Refreshments were served by the ladies and a most enjoyable evening was spent.
