Davidson, Summer street, and was a most attractive and successful social function. HALIFAX'S LOSS IS WOLFVILLE'S GAIN

(From the Evening Mail)
The departure on Tuesday for Wolfville, where she will reside, of Mrs. Gordon Stairs, and her two small sons, leaves a blank among her many friends in this city. No young lady of more charming disposition and personality ever came here as the wife of one of our prominent citizens, and Halifax is sorry to lose Mr. and Mrs. Stairs even to its neighboring town as Wolfville. In musical circles, especially, Mrs. Stairs will be missed, and the interest she has taken and help she has given in the Ladies Musical Club, of which she was a director, will not soon be forgotten. Among hostesses entertaining in honor of Mrs. Stairs before her departure were Mrs. R. B. Willis and Miss Kathleen Stairs, Mrs. Hugh Stairs, Mrs. Wishart Robertson and Mrs. Charles C. Mitchell.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. Gerard and family wish to thank those who sent flowers and cards, also those who sympathized with them in any way in their recent sad bereavement.
