In the item referring in last issue to the "Old Maids' Convention" given in Temperance Hall on April 14th, an omission was made in one number, viz. the reader, Miss Laura Duncanson, of Acadia University. Miss Duncanson has a most pleasing personally and her rendition was very ine, and was greatly enjoyed by all who were fortunate enough to hear her.

The pageant play which was given by the Student Volunteer Movement of Acadia under the direction of Miss Evelyn Smallman in Wolfville, was repeated in Temperance Hall on April 17th, to a crowded house, and was greatly enjoyed. The parts were admirably taker by each one, and refected great credit on the director.

Miss Ruth Jackson, Miss Lncy Cogswell, Miss Gladys Newcombe and Mr. Curtiss Newcombe spent the holidays at their respective homes.

Mrs. Foulis Newcombe; of Belcher Street, spent the Easter, holidays in Halifax, the guest of hei friend, Miss Nappan.

OSCAR CHASE

The death of Mr. Oscar Chase, of Chirch Street, which occurred on Sunday last after a week's illness of pleuropneumonia, was it arned of with sincere regret by many friends. Mr. Chase was one of the best known and most highly esteemed residents of Kings county, a man of sterling character, and high ideals who will be keenly missed. He was a son of the late Albert Chase and a brother of Mr. W. H. Chase, of this town, and of Mr. Bedford Chase, of Port Williams. He was 63 years of age and had resided pr. ctically all his life on the old homestead, the limits of which he extended until it became one of the finest properties in the county. A graduate of the Guelph Agricultural College and a man of fine practical knowledge, he filled a foremost place among Nova Scota farmers and fruit growers.

He is survived by his wife; four daughters, Dr. Margaret, a graduate of Acadia in Arts, and of Dalhousie in meditine, now assistant to Dr. Nichols in the patheological department of Dalhousie University and resident physican of Shipreff Hall, who cared for her lather in his last illness; Dr. Lillian, who has been on the staff of the Western Hospital, Toronto, and who recently has been appointed as a medical missionary to Korea; Miss Susan, B S. A., and Miss Mary, attending high school in Wolfville; one son, Robert, at home. The funeral took place on Wednesday afternoon and was one of the most largely attended for many years an elder, conducted the service, being assisted by Rev D. B. Hemmeon, of Wolfville, and Rev. R. B. Layton, of Kentville. The internent was in the family lot in the old cemetery at Chipman Corner, the pall-bearers being Messrs. Charles Magee. Arthur Dickie, John Donaldson, David Sutton, Robert Murphy, and William Jacques.

THANK OFFERING MEETING AT

The annual Easter Thank Offering service of the Woman's Missionary Society, of Caming Methodist church, held on Tuesday aftenoon, April 22, was largely attended, the president, Mrs. Leander Eaton, in the chair. The sister society of the United Baptist church was a guest on this occasion. The speaker was Mrs. Whitman, corresponding secretary of the Bravch, who impressed on us the great work that is being carried on by the Women's Missionary Society which is as a light lighted by the "Light of Lights", passing to others until all shall know the Lord. All doors to Mission Work arhow open, except those closed by ourselves, The time is ripe for the extension of the kingdom. Do we not heat the call?
