Lalented Governor will be a candidate for bonear, Nfld., arrived here yesterday Short speeches were made by Masters Wm. M'Kay, Jas. H. Vye, and Everett Bateman, aged respectively I3, 5 and 8 years. At the close, the President tendered the thanks of the Club to Mr. John Burchill, as one of the leading members of the Division, for the trouble taken in fitting up the hall for the occasion. Mr. B. responded in fitting terms. There is a strong feeling of Thata between the sister temperance

"Marriage, as celebrated in latest whipping, under the direction of the style," was acted by Mr. E. Hodnet, Miss M. Hodnet, Miss Richey, Mr. Richey and Mr. R. Dempséy. Reading by Mr. N. Richibucto, April 15. Saturday evening at the announce-ment of the sudden death of John ment, with best wishes for their future wheten, Esq., for many years known as the proprietor of the Kent Hotel. He had for the past two years been visibly failing in health, and had passed through one or two severe attacks Grit member for Welland, has been struck from the roll of barristers for dose were common sore threat one dose wer of illness, from which it was scarcely expected he would recover. He rallied from these, however, and of late seemed in tolerably good health. On Commissioner is putting into practice Saturday he was apparently as active seemed in the range of the rang as he had been for a long time past, ing the running water. attending to his accustomed duties, and a few minutes before his death was playing with his grandchildren. While conversing with some people who were about him, he turned towards his wife who was near by, and stretched his hand out to clasp hers. carried to his bed, and Dr. Moody was promptly summoned, but within four minutes he breathed his last. The immediate cause of his death was heart-disease, from which he had been suffering for many years. He was in his 65th year, and had spent his life in this, his native town.

Mr. Wheten was a man of warm and generous impulses, and although, like all others, he had his peculiarities, yet they were not such as to be a cause of offence or of evil influence to his neighbor. Kind and courteous in his manner, he won many friends among those with whom he was brought in daily contact. He was foremost in all charitable enterprises, and always gave liberally when he deemed the object worthy. For many years he had been one of the Wardens of the Episcopal Church, and will be much missed by the members of that congregation. The funeral is to take to-morrow (Tuesday) at 2 P. M. at the Parish Church.

The accounts given in the British Trade Circulars of the pros- Lewcastle Lolice Court. pects for the Wood Trade during the coming season are not very encouraging. A Liverpoor uncurar, March 30, states that notwithstanding the present low stocks, prices are declining. St. John deals are quoted at £8. A cargo of Miramichi deals sold ex quay realized £8 5s. The London Timber Trades Journal says that low prices will rule for qualities below first class, while for good brands and favorite dimensions fair prices may be relied upon.

THE CHATHAM RAILWAY SCANDAL, The evidence in this matter has appeared, from which we are pleased to learn that the charges against the Hon. R. Young were altogether groundless, and were abandoned at the outset by Mr. O'Leary, who preferred them against that gentleman. Three of the committee, Gov't supporters, have exonerated the Hon. Mr. Kelly, stating that the charges made against him are without foundation, while on the other hand, two members of the committee are not so thoroughly convinced on this point, or they would not have considered it necessary to bring in a minority report. It does seem to us thatthe ruling with respect to questions put to witnesses who did not lean to the Gov't side, was very strict, much more so than the occasion required, and not at all tending to elife such an examination as should be had in hatter of such grave importance. If individual as stated by the Chief Commissioner, the charges preferred against him were, to use his elegant language, "as false as h—," he had nothing to fear from the most searching enquiry. We do hope, indeed, that his hands are thoroughly clean in this matter. It is not to our credit abroad that our public men, or any of them shall be found guilty of malteasance in the administration of our public affairs, and we therefore trust that the Chief Commissioner will be in a position to appear before his constituents at the approaching election free from any act which shall lower him in the estimation of the electors.
