Washington, July 4.—The Secretary of the Navy has received the following: Playa via Hayti, Secretary of the Navy, Washington, 3.15 a. m., Siboney, July 3.—The fleet under the command of the nation as a Fourth of July present, the destruction of the whole of Cervera's fleet. No one escaped. It attempted to escape at 9.30 a. m., and at 2 p. m. the last, the Cristobal Colon, had run ashore sixty miles west of Santiago and has left down her colors. The Infanta Maria Teresa, Oquendo and Vizcaya were forced ashore, burned and blown up within twenty miles of Santiago, the Furor and Pluton were destroyed within four miles of the port. Loss, one killed and two wounded. Enemy's loss, probably several hundred from gunfire, explosions and drowning.
About 1,300 prisoners, including Admiral Cervera. The man killed was George H. Ellis, chief yeoman of the Brooklyn. (Signed) Sampson.

No Details—Of Course Not.
Madrid, July 4, noon.—An official despatch received here from Santiago de Cuba says Admiral Cervera's squadron has succeeded in "making a sortie" from Santiago. No details are given.

Dewey's Help Arrives.
Washington, July 4.—At 5.30 this morning the Navy Department received a cablegram from Admiral Dewey confirming the Associated Press despatch announcing the arrival of the American transports at Manila.

Pando's Reinforcements Delayed.
New York, July 4.—A special to the World (yellow) from Washington says:
Gen. Miles has received a despatch from Lieut.-Col. Wagner, of the Bureau of Military Information at Santiago, in which he states that Gen.
Pando has not formed a junction with the forces of Gen. Linares. Pando, with 5,000 men, is still some distance from Santiago. Gen. Garcia, with 3,000 Cubans, between Pando and Santiago, is successfully resisting his efforts to reach the city.

Linares' Aides Killed.
Madrid, July 4.—10 a. m.—At the conclusion of yesterday's Cabinet meeting, the Minister announced that official confirmation had been received of the report that Gen. Ynesa Deley and two of Gen. Linares' aides-de-camp were among the killed in the third attack upon El Caney. The American losses were said, from Spanish sources, to have exceeded two thousand men. It is reported that Gen. Linares has succumbed to his wounds, but the statement is not confirmed. The Spanish Government has no news from Aguadores nor from the reinforcements from Manilla, under Generals Espartero and Pareja.

McKinley's Thanks.
Washington, July 4.—The following message was sent to Admiral Sampson to-day by the President: "To Admiral Sampson, for his brave and valiant conduct in the battle of San Pedro, and for the whole American people convey to your noble officers and crews, through whose valor new honors have been added to the Americans, the grateful thanks and appreciation of the nation. (Signed), William Mc-Kinley."

War Notes.
The Kreuz Zeitung warns America that European neutrality might not be maintained if the Americans were to bombard Spanish ports.
The Berlin National Gazette says:
"With all their dislike of warlike speculations, European states allow no trifling with their interests.
No one menaces the American Union.
Diplomacy has ever been excessively polite to the Yankees out of consideration of their sensitiveness; but it has been assumed that they will respect the rights of others." The London Times compliments both sides on their bravery, but advises Spain to submit to Yankee demands.
Sagasta is said to have stated:
"Though the American warships may destroy our squadron in the harbor, yet we will pursue the war.
There are in Cuba 100,000 men ready to die in its defence, but they will not yield."
Secretary Long said to-day that Watson's fleet would be sent to the Spanish coast immediately.

PURE AIR THE BEST MEDICINE.
Cases of Consumption Cured by Outdoor Treatment.

Consumption, that scourge of Eastern Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New York and New Jersey, has lost some of its terrors of late.
Recent English experiments have shown that consumption almost always is developed as a result of overcrowding and bad air. Take a boy suffering from a tendency to consumption and put him at work on a farm, and he will probably escape the disease himself and have healthy children. If he goes to work in a bank or dry goods store he is almost certain to contract the disease, unless he is very careful in his out-of-work hours to seek outdoor pursuits.
These facts suggest what is known as the outdoor treatment of phthisis.
Dr. F. W. Burton Fanning reports that the success follows its use in a very large percentage of cases, even where there is considerable lesion of the lungs. The fever is reduced, in some cases when it has been a month, in others persisting for several months.
Appetite improves, sleeplessness vanishes and night sweats depart if the patient is kept out of doors literally all the time, winter and summer. Of course a dry, warm, sunny climate has usually its advantages for such a purpose, but there are reasons why a radical change of climate is not always advisable. Such resorts as are found in Cornwall, England, or Atlantic City, or Southampton, L. I., in this country, probably answer quite as well as the Riviera or Florida.

Of course the open-air treatment is not in any way meant to suggest that the patient must live an active life outdoors. This would be a great mistake except as a prophylactic in mild cases, as all the vital powers are needed to throw off the disease, and too much exposure lowers the vitality of the sick. The preferred plan is to put the sick into open lots; in summer and in pleasant weather take their beds and hammocks out of doors. A movable, well-ventilated camp can be carried as required, is a valuable adjustment to the treatment.

Sleeping-rooms must always have their windows fully open in winter and summer, according to Dr. Burton Fanning. So long as the patient is properly clothed he need not fear cold or wet. Consumptive patients are less liable to catch cold than are comparatively healthy people—

REVOLUTION IN URUGUAY

Fighting Going on in the Streets of Montevideo.

MUTINY OF THE ARTILLERY.

Esterhazy, of Dreyfus and Zola Cases Fame, Once a Figure in the Street —The Chicago News-Pamphlet—Stereotypes to be Fought to a Finish—Returned Klondiker. With $375,000.

Chicago, July 4.—Premature Fourth of July celebrations caused three deaths in Chicago yesterday. Harry Wyzora, 7 years old, was accidentally shot with a pistol by her cousin, Andra Redfield, 6 years old, burned to death by her child catching fire while playing around a bonfire. Jas.
Walsh, aged 32, received a fatal charge in his groin from a brass cannon which he was preparing for the celebration.

TWO MORE VICTIMS.
Toledo, O., July 4.—James Wilcox and William Monch were instantly killed last evening by the explosion of a mixture of chloride of potash and sulphur, which they were mixing in a mortar for Fourth of July celebration. Their bodies were horribly muffled.

ESTERHAZY ASSAULTS TRIUMPH.
Paris, July 4.—Compte Ferdinand Walsh Esterhazy, who was charged by M. Zola with being the author of the bordereau in the Dreyfus case, yesterday thrashed with a cane in a public street Colonel Flouquet, who was disciplined for giving testimony favorable to M. Zola at the recent trial of the author, and who, subsequently fought a duel with Colonel Henry, who gave testimony against
M. Zola.

THE CHICAGO STRIKE.
Chicago, July 4.—The situation between the striking stereotypers and the publishers of Chicago remains practically unchanged, and probably no Chicago paper will publish before to-morrow morning.

THE CHICAGO NEWS FAMINE.
Chicago, Ill., July 4.—The striking stereotypers prevented Chicagoans from enjoying any of the Chicago Sunday papers, but that did not prohibit city boys from trying to get into the city in great quantities and suggesting the demand so far as possible.

Newspaper offices continue as dead as the city. The only papers that are a waifman or two to each concern that, as a rule, is a scene of bustle 24 hours a day.

The various roller-plate country sheet sold in Chicago to-day for five cents, the large papers brought ten cents, and the metropolitan sheets from Milwaukee, St. Louis, Chicago and other points brought a quarter each, and a news-furnished public was glad to get them at the price.

The gut-liters' strike was flag to-day and continued their preparations to do business without regard to the stereotypers' Union.

St. Louis, Mo., July 4.—The striking stereotypers have understood the manner in which the secretary struck they have shown less disposition to sympathize with them and it is considered highly probable that the stereotypers will be abandoned by the other unions and that the Chicago newspaper stereotypers rooms will be long-run.

Nos. of the men who went out in so unceremonious a manner without the notice to other employers, that their contracts called for, will expect employment in Chicago again.
The publishers are a curious ample from their own quarters, and they already have in Chicago almost enough men to fill the places of the strikers.
The complement will be complete by to-morrow, it is hoped, and a publication that papers may resume publication on Tuesday next.

MADE THEIR PILE.
Seattle, Wn., July 4.—The first miners to come from the Klondike this season arrived here today from St. Michaels, on the steamer New England. There were twenty of them and they brought gold dust and grats estimated at $75,000.

REVOLUTION IN URUGUAY.
Montevideo, Uruguay, July 4.—A revolution has broken out in the capital. The fourth regiment of light artillery, headed by Gen. Estevan, has mutinied. Firing began early this morning, and continues as this despatch is sent, close to the city. The government has declared the city in a state of siege and has called out the National Guard.

The revolution is supposed to be the intrigues of the Herzerista party, composed of the following of Dr. Miguel Herrera, Y Otes, former President of the Republic of Uruguay, and Minister of the Interior and of Justice in the Borda Cabinet.

A detachment of British blue jackets have been landed here to defend the British Consulate.

Mr. L. M. Stuart writing to his father, Mr. A. Stuart, City Treasurer, says he had the pleasure of seeing Mr. Thomas Beasley and Mrs. Beasley around London recently.

Yesterday the police recovered a number of pigeons which were stolen from Mr. Thos. Young, MacNab street north.

—Claydevil, Mr. Frederick W. Wat-
