

Spring Skin Troubles

Every spring, for years, Mr. Amos Smith, of Port Hood, C.B., suffered from boils, until he used Zam-Buk. He writes:

"Each spring they would return and break out on my hands and arms. At times they were so bad that I could scarcely work. I tried various remedies without receiving any benefit. I consulted a doctor, but he was unable to cure me."

"Then a friend recommended Zam-Buk. The improvement after using the first box was surprising. I continued until the boils had entirely disappeared, and I have never had any return since."

Zam-Buk is also unequalled for eczema, ulcers, abscesses, scalp sores, ringworm, blood-poisoning, piles, cuts, burns, scalds, etc. All druggists, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto; 50c. box, 2 for $1.25.

Coun. Parker on Settlement of Crown Lands that reason. I have nothing to say against the larger interests. The men and Corporations who have invested Capital in the public lands, have every right to protection and indemnity whenever, and wherever they can establish a good claim for compensation for any land withdrawn from their leases, and that Government would be wanting in Justice that would refuse it, but these leaseholders have no right to indemnify themselves by slaughtering the public domain, in defiance of the law, and in prejudice of the rights of others equally entitled to protection. Equal rights to all, and special privileges to none ought to be the ground upon which all should stand. "All other ground is sinking sand."

Those if any, who say that I am prejudiced with prejudice towards the Leaseholders are not to be endured. No man ever spun out of his bowels a more unlikely yarn if such a notion exists in any man's mind, as is the most unsubstantial myth that ever afflicted his imagination. When have I said that one tithe of a hair ought to be taken from their just right. Men, if it were left to me to-night, if it were left to those in this matter who think with me to-night, the streams of their prosperity tomorrow would be running bank full. Like Jonah's gourd, their success would grow up and flourish in a single night I only wish that while these men prosper others in the humbler walks of life might find a path to homes and happiness in their land. (Applause)

Allow me in conclusion to say that so far as I know the present Government have borne no part in the Regulations in question. They were all made before the present party came to power. In some cases—in many cases in fact—they have lifted the burden, at least to some extent, and I am entirely confident, that if we exert ourselves in our own behalf, if our efforts are in any measure equal to the merits of our cause, if we arouse a public opinion in favor of a just and reasonable administration of the Labor Act, the present Government will respond to that opinion. In doing so they will not only justify their pledge to the people, but they will place themselves in marked contrast with some in the past, who perhaps aiming at better ends, but drawn aside by strong passions and strong temptations, have left to us and to posterity, only a doubtful and checkered fame. (Great applause)

I am glad to see that you approve this effort I suggest on behalf of our boys. They are worthy of it. It is not strange that our young men should wish to settle down in their native Province. New Brunswick presents as many inducements to them as any Province in the Dominion or State in the Union, and besides it is their home. Some writer has said that home, and hope, and heaven are the sweetest words in our language. They are sweet because of their sacred associations and tender memories which they suggest to the mind and heart. Have we not all realized that our native land suggests something more to us than the grandeur of its natural features, something more even than the advancement of its material prosperity? What is it that makes it dear to us all? It is the flag and what it stands for. It is the home and the fireside, it is the high thoughts that are dwelling in our hearts, it is our home, and the home of our loved ones, it is the land of our birth, the land where our fathers sleep, and where we too hope to repose when life's battle is over and its journey is ended. It is our duty to give to it our thought, our council, our service if necessary our lives; this while we live, so that when departing we may leave it uncontaminated by any trace of falsehood, or of servitude, and unprofaned by dismemberment. Surely it is the duty of Government to induce our young men to remain at home to perform these noble services for their country rather than that they should wander so far away that their homes is like a dream to them. (Applause)

These are the words of the veteran orator disputing yill the Government heed his voice?

Fit-Reform

Tailoring of the highest form

THE graceful lines of a Suit can only be acquired by two methods.

One by the man at the helm, who is a master designer,—the other, by tailors, trained experts on the production of particular parts in the construction of the garments.

For these reasons, 'tis easy to distinguish Fit-Reform Clothes. They stand out, like the masterpieces of the great painters.

Dunlop "Gibraltar RedSpecial" Belting

Abnormal Friction Pull vs. Elasticity of Friction

Note the Short Grain Rubber Friction

This Belt Section illustrates a Heavy "Friction-Pull" Friction. To secure this result the Friction Grain is short and stiff. Elasticity and Flexibility have been sacrificed to secure such a result.

BETWEEN every ply of specially-selected, heavy Cotton Duck in Dunlop "Gibraltar RedSpecial" Belting is a layer of pure Rubber which, through a Dunlop calendering process, so permeates the fabric that it binds the several plies into one integral piece.

Some belt manufacturers offer to sell their product on the basis of "Heavy-Poundage in a Friction-Pull" Test. To obtain the latter result it is not necessary to secure such an expensive Rubber Friction as is used in "Gibraltar RedSpecial." This fact alone ought to be a pretty good gauge of the value of the "friction-pull" test.

In buying "Gibraltar RedSpecial" you get the advantage of years of careful laboratory work on our part with this result: The friction is of that "just-right" elastic quality which allows for the give and take necessary in rounding the pulleys; hence the reason "Gibraltar RedSpecial" is known for maximum Power, Speed and Service.

Note the Long Grain Rubber Friction

Dunlop "GIBRALTAR REDSPECIAL" has a Friction of Special Dunlop Rubber that retains its life indefinitely. "Note the long grain Rubber Friction," as illustrated. Elasticity has not been sacrificed for Abnormal Friction Pull.

UNLIMITED capacity for service is an intrinsic quality with Dunlop "Gibraltar RedSpecial" Belting. The success of nearly a quarter of a century in the manufacture of Rubber Products is built into Gibraltar. The original Made-in-Canada Red Rubber, Frictioned Surface Belting, "Gibraltar RedSpecial" has stood the inflexible test of time in turning the wheels of industry in a multitude of Canadian plants from the Atlantic to the Pacific.

The Dunlop Unreserved Guarantee

If you have a difficult drive anywhere in your factory drop a line to our Head Office, or to our nearest branch, and we will send a man experienced in belt engineering to consider your requirements. If it is an instance where the "Gibraltar" Belting may be suitably employed we will recommend its use and we will stand behind our recommendation with the fullest guarantee ever issued by a firm producing rubber products.
