WOMAN SUFFERED FOR MONTHS

Weak and Nervous. Made Well by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Webbwood, Ont.—"I was in a very weak and run-down nervous condition, always tired from the time I got up until I went to bed. Sleep did not rest me at all. My sister recommended Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to me and others told me about it, but it was from my sister's advice that I took it. It did not take long until I felt stronger, headaches left me and my appetite came back to me.
I am a farmer's wife and have many things to do outside the house, such as milking, looking after the poultry, and other chores. I heartily recommend the Vegetable Compound to all who have the same trouble I had, for it is a fine medicine for women."—Mrs. LOUIS F. ELIAS-SSA, Hillcrest Farm, Webbwood, Ont.

Another Nervous Woman Finds Relief Fort Huron, Michigan.—"I suffered for two years with pains in my side, and if I worked very much I was nervous and just as tired in the morning as when I went to bed. I was sleepy all the day and didn't feel like doing anything, and was so nervous I would bite my finger nails. One of my friends told me about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it helped me so much that I soon felt fine."—Mrs. CHARLES BEELER, 501-14th St., Fort Huron, Mich.

Women who suffer from any feminine ailment should try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"AT THE THEATRE"

I went last night to see the play —a drama of the modern kind; and I am feeling tired to-day; I'd like to fumigate my mind. I'd hate to always recollect those tawdry jokes and vicious cracks; for I would fain be circumspect, and keep my brain as clean as wax.

The playwright did his best to show that married life is flat and stale; that homely virtues are too slow to prosper in this earthly vale; he put Decit on dress parade, and put a laurel crown on Vice; and Honor saw her trophies fade, and Truth was laid upon the ice. "It held the mirror up to life," and I, said it, homeward went, and got a club and beat my wife, and robbed an orphan of a cent.

If I saw many plays so rank, so full of dark and evil thought, I'd steal a blind man's savings bank, or "swipe" a widow's house and lot.
You may be lustrous as a star, with all the virtues in you canned, but if you fool around with tar you'll blacken up to beat the band. You may be wholesome as the breeze that blows chortles through a country lane, but if you eat Limburger cheese, your friends will pass you with disdain.
And every time you see a play, or read a book that makes a jest of love and home, you throw away some part of you that was the best.

TEACHING THE EVIL OF GOSSIP

Girl Scouts have developed a new game which, probably one to attention and 100 per cent. curiosity, is called "gossip." The girls are seated in a circle. The leader whispers a sentence to her left-hand neighbor.
She passes it on to the next girl also in a whisper. In that way it makes the circle and the last girl tells out loud what she heard.
The sentence at the end of the circle is never the same as when it started and often little, if any, resemblance to it.

This game has a greater moral than most such pastimes. It impresses vividly on the girls the evils of gossip, showing how stories change in the repeating, how something is left out, something twisted.
Less unhappiness might be evident if every gossip who starts a story about a neighbor could have brought home to her that tale after it had been bandied about by a score or more of persons. Perhaps the persistent character assassins would be awed by the brutality of their crime and restrain.

Sometimes when the sewing circle starts talking about absent members, try this game, then cog-itate the result before contributing to the morsels of gossip.

The Bible is To Be Rewritten

New York, May 9—Present day scientific, ethical and philosophical theories will be employed in rewriting the Bible "in the light of the twentieth century," it was announced yesterday by the Tyson Lectureship Foundation which was organized at a meeting of clergy, scholars and laity in the library of J. P.
Morgan's home.

A statement issued by the new organization declared the conception of the Bible as a single inerrant volume to be "an unfortunate inheritance from medieval Europe." The statement added:

"The old order has passed away, and with it much of the traditional theology.

The foundation was declared to have been incorporated "to make accessible to men and women in general the results of the research of modern scholars into the origin of the Christian religion and its interpretation, and particularly in regard to the Bible.

The Senate
Hears Talk On
Freight Rates

Ottawa, May 8—The Senate today discussed the effect of increased freight rates on the business of the Maritime Provinces and the methods to be adopted to solve this problem.

The question was brought before the Senate by Hon. Mr. McDonald Shediac, who declared that the industries in the Maritime Provinces were facing bankruptcy under the present conditions. Until 1916 he added there were differential rates which permitted the export of goods from these provinces to central and western Canada. These rates were abolished and ruin now faced the factories and families were leaving the country. The Government had acted on behalf of the Western farmers on the freight rates question and could do the same for the Maritime Provinces.

The Canadian National Railways had become international not national and were diverting trade to United States ports, he said. He urged that the Government give back what the Maritimes had been promised and received for fifty years after Confederation, and moved a resolution to this effect seconded by Hon. Mr. Turgeon, who declared that freight rates were Canada's greatest problem and that these rates were bearing heavily on the Maritime Provinces which were essential to Canada.

The Maritime Provinces said Senator Turgeon had little or no home market for their chief product and had to find an outlet. The people of his province were amazed when it was announced that the Atlantic division would end at Riviere du Loup instead of Montreal. He had warned the Government that the acquisition of the Grand Trunk Railway would do an injustice to the Maritime ports and his warning has been amply justified since.

Senator Girroir said that Confederation was founded on this principle of transportation and tariff.
Ontario and Quebec had promised a market and cheap transportation to Nova Scotia if that province would enter Confederation and give up its trade with the United States and now its trade with central Canada was also cut off. Senator Black deplored the possibility of any dissatisfaction in Confederation but we could not close our eyes to the fact that such dissatisfaction existed both in the east and in the west.

Senator Fowler moved the adjournment of the debate.

Between 40 And 50 Ocean Freighters

Are Indefinitely Delayed Owing to Ice Conditions

Between forty and fifty ocean freighters are now in Canadian territorial waters off Newfoundland or in the vicinity of Cape Race and Cape Ray, and indefinitely delayed owing to unprecedented ice conditions. The dislocation of export trade from Montreal is in consequence the most serious ever encountered. One White Star liner has at last reported through the ice and is now speeding up the river to Quebec, three days late.

Anchor-Donaldson liner Saturna, is 100 miles east of Fame Point and almost through the ice barrier.

How serious the delay is in this instance can be realized in the report that the Anchor-Donaldson liner Cassandra, which left Glasgow a week later, according to schedule, is already reported in 240 miles east of Cape Ray, and evidently just entering the ice zone.

The new Anchor-Donaldson liner Athena is in the meantime ice-bound off Cape Ray, and so three liners which should be running on the weekly schedule to Glasgow are all at sea and headed for Montreal, when one of them at least should be now approaching Glasgow on the return trip and the other ready to sail from there this Saturday.
