

Telegram Fashion Plates.

The Home Dressmaker should keep a Catalogue Scrap Book of our Fashion Plates. These will be found very useful to refer to from time to time.

FOR WORK OR AS A "HOME" DRESS.

3809. Here is a very comfortable frock, with graceful lines, in one piece style. The pockets are a useful and attractive feature. The sleeve may be finished in wrist or in elbow length. Figured percale, gingham, drill, linen, serge, mohair, sateen, kadarine and taffeta are good for this model.

The Pattern is cut in 6 Sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42 and 44 inches bust measure. A 38 inch size requires 5 yards of 36 inch material. The width of the skirt at the foot is about 2 yards.

Pattern mailed to any address on receipt of 10c. in silver or stamps.

A MODEL FOR SERVICE AND PROTECTION.

4163. This "easy to make" apron model is nice in unbleached muslin with facings of contrasting material, or, in gingham, chintz or percale. The side seams are free below the hips, but if preferred may be closed their entire length.

The Pattern is cut in 4 Sizes: Small, 34-36; Medium, 38-40; Large, 42-44; Extra Large, 46-48 inches bust measure. A Medium size requires 4 1/2 yards of 27 inch material.

Pattern mailed to any address on receipt of 10c. in silver or stamps.

A SIMPLE "EASY TO MAKE" APRON STYLE.

4276. Figured percale in blue and white, with banding of black bias tape, is here shown. This is a good model for gingham, rubberized cloth, linen, crepe or saton.

The Pattern is cut in 4 Sizes: Small, Medium, Large and Extra Large. A Medium size requires 2 1/2 yards of 36 inch material.

Pattern mailed to any address on receipt of 10c. in silver or stamps.

A PRETTY HOUSE OR PORCH FROCK.

4270. Checked gingham in brown and white is here illustrated. It is trimmed with white plique. Figured voile or percale will also be good for this model. Taffeta or tab silk would be very pleasing, with stitching or embroidery for trimming.

The Pattern is cut in 6 Sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, and 44 inches bust measure. A 38 inch size requires 5 1/2 yards of 32 inch material. The width of the skirt at the foot is 2 1/2 yards. To trim as illustrated requires 3/4 yard of 36 inch material.

Pattern mailed to any address on receipt of 10c. in silver or stamps.

A COMFORTABLE WORK DRESS.

3969. It is the little touches in the finish of this garment that will please you—as well as knowing that it is easy to make and comfortable to wear. In seersucker or chambray or a neat pattern of percale it is quite as nice as if made up in gabardine, dimity or dotted Swiss.

It is cut in 7 Sizes: 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, and 48 inches bust measure. A 38 inch size requires 6 yards of 36 inch material.

Pattern mailed to any address on receipt of 10c. in silver or stamps.

FOR PORCH OR KITCHEN WEAR.

4161. Trim and neat is the style here portrayed. The development and adjustment are equally simple. Figured percale was used in this instance, combined with white linens.

The Pattern is cut in 7 Sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46 inches bust measure. A 38 inch size requires 5 yards of 40 inch material. To make vest, collar and cuffs of contrasting material requires 1 1/2 yards. The width at the foot is 3 1/2 yards.

Pattern mailed to any address on receipt of 10c. in silver or stamps.

Weather Report.

Twillingate—N. E. gale with snow.
 Beaverville—Strong north wind, snowstorm raging; Ba y full of ice.
 Ladsby—Strong northerly winds, stormy and moderately cold.
 Catalina—Snowstorm raging, strong northerly wind; impossible to report ice conditions.

Port aux Basques—N. W. wind, clear weather; no ice in sight.

Dramatic, gripping, thrilling, spectacular and all the other adjectives you can think of.
 "PILATE'S DAUGHTER."

Our Weekly Letter.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)
 Montreal, Feb. 17th (Delayed in Mail). The city at present has an epidemic of different diseases, influenza of a milder and less virulent type of three years ago, seems to predominate. Scholars, teachers, office hands and even the police seem to be the afflicted ones. The hospitals are crowded, while many schools have from 25 to 30 per cent. of their scholars and teachers on the sick list.

The cause is attributed to the changeable weather. The programme is heavy frost for a day or two, followed by rain for ten or twelve hours, then zero weather again. To add to the discomfort of the weather, there is the shortness of coal. Many persons have found it very hard to get even a small supply of fuel, while some schools have been kept waiting for 4 and 5 days for their supply. The City Council is supplying coal to the public at $16 a ton, plus the cartage. Soft coal has to be used in furnaces all over the city, and many of the coal merchants are having a hard time to try and get hard coal for their customers.

Determined to taste life to the fullest, she plunged into the hectic night life of Chinatown, with its lure of drugs and narcotics. With a chum named Florence, she frequented the gayest and most lurid of the "coke cabarets."

A few years later, she became the wife of Lee Jung, a Chinese merchant. Her chum at the same time married another Chinaman of Cleveland. Tiring of the night life of Boston and Providence, she prevailed upon her Chinese mate to take her to New York.

Again, her beauty and high spirits prevailed. She became the "heart-breaker" of Chinatown in New York. She was the gayest, the most vivacious, the most colorful of all the dope-driven spirits who haunted the exotic dens seeking forgetfulness and oblivion.

More and more racked by pain, influenced by a desire for narcotics to soothe her shattered nerves, Marjorie Jung gradually drifted into the most forsaken hovels of Chinatown, where only the despairing of hearts sought to drown out their memories.

And in one of these dens of despair she was found dead by the same chum who had known her in the days of the "merry life." But when her frail body was carried to Florence's room, Marjie was facing the second part of her mad prophecy—"the grave and the hereafter."

Michael Donnelly, of the firm of Rae & Donnelly, auctioneers, died during the week. The deceased was well acquainted in St. John's, and first visited the city and outlying districts over forty years ago. In 1921 he paid a visit to St. John's during the summer. He had business transactions with some people from the city, and other parts of Newfoundland for many years. His partner in the business died some years ago, but up to last May, when he retired, he was always "on the job." He fell sick shortly after his retirement and was operated on at the General Hospital for a growth in the stomach, from which he never recovered. His funeral, which took place from St. Anthony's Church, was largely attended. He had reached his 76th year. He was the oldest auctioneer in Montreal, and up to about four months ago, enjoyed excellent health. He was a brother of the famous poetess and writer, Eleanor C. Donnelly.

The Quebec Liquor Commission at Montreal has written a letter to The New York Times in which it is pointed out that the people of the United States and Canada are being deceived by bootleggers who use forged Gordon dry gin labels of the commission. The letter referred to the fact that recently some Gordon dry gin, sealed with forged labels of the commission, "was bought by our police in a very select club of a large dry city and handed over to us as 'piece a conviction.'"

"A party willing to forge a label can well be expected to sell under it any poor or even poisonous stuff that he might find profitable to deal in," the letter continues. "As a matter of fact the bottle of so-called Gordon's dry gin, above referred to, when analysed by our chemist was found to have but very distant relationship with the genuine article, and contained traces of poisonous substances."

The Province of Quebec and its Liquor Commission have been taken to task for supplying American and Ontario bootleggers with their goods. It is now perfectly clear that most of the liquor sold as having been supplied by us is counterfeit from the case to the seal."

The drug habit is still going strong, in fact, growing stronger every day, judging from the police court records. While a few are caught the vast majority of the addicts are still free. In a recent raid here the scene was appalling. In three rooms, a father, mother, ten children, ranging from three months to thirteen, one girl and two men had their residence. The children were sleeping in beds and on clothing on the floor at the time of the raid. Some four or five dozen of empty beer bottles, a lot of empty boxes labelled "Cocaine" were found. The girl was found in one of the rooms with two syringes and needles, and before her was a wine-glass filled with a colorless liquid. The police believe the girl is an addict, and was preparing a drug injection. Chinatown has its opium dens, but other parts of the city have dens for cocaine, heroin and morphine. A pitiful story is recorded in the Boston Daily Advertiser of February 21st.

"A short life and a merry one—then the grave and the hereafter." This brief rule for happiness, spoken lightly eight years ago by beautiful little "Marjie" Mahoney, then at Boston, came to a tragic fulfillment recently when the drug-wracked body of Marjorie Mahoney Jung was found lifeless in a dingy opium den at 17 Mott St., Chinatown, New York.

The young Boston business girl, who once spoke this motto jestingly to a police officer, has found ample opportunity to test its sinister truth.

The "merry life" began eight years ago, when pretty "Marjie" lived in a lodging house on Massachusetts Ave., near St. Botolph Street, and worked in a Chinatown business office.

Determined to taste life to the fullest, she plunged into the hectic night life of Chinatown, with its lure of drugs and narcotics. With a chum named Florence, she frequented the gayest and most lurid of the "coke cabarets."

A few years later, she became the wife of Lee Jung, a Chinese merchant. Her chum at the same time married another Chinaman of Cleveland. Tiring of the night life of Boston and Providence, she prevailed upon her Chinese mate to take her to New York.

Again, her beauty and high spirits prevailed. She became the "heart-breaker" of Chinatown in New York. She was the gayest, the most vivacious, the most colorful of all the dope-driven spirits who haunted the exotic dens seeking forgetfulness and oblivion.

More and more racked by pain, influenced by a desire for narcotics to soothe her shattered nerves, Marjorie Jung gradually drifted into the most forsaken hovels of Chinatown, where only the despairing of hearts sought to drown out their memories.

And in one of these dens of despair she was found dead by the same chum who had known her in the days of the "merry life." But when her frail body was carried to Florence's room, Marjie was facing the second part of her mad prophecy—"the grave and the hereafter."

Michael Donnelly, of the firm of Rae & Donnelly, auctioneers, died during the week. The deceased was well acquainted in St. John's, and first visited the city and outlying districts over forty years ago. In 1921 he paid a visit to St. John's during the summer. He had business transactions with some people from the city, and other parts of Newfoundland for many years. His partner in the business died some years ago, but up to last May, when he retired, he was always "on the job." He fell sick shortly after his retirement and was operated on at the General Hospital for a growth in the stomach, from which he never recovered. His funeral, which took place from St. Anthony's Church, was largely attended. He had reached his 76th year. He was the oldest auctioneer in Montreal, and up to about four months ago, enjoyed excellent health. He was a brother of the famous poetess and writer, Eleanor C. Donnelly.

The Quebec Liquor Commission at Montreal has written a letter to The New York Times in which it is pointed out that the people of the United States and Canada are being deceived by bootleggers who use forged Gordon dry gin labels of the commission. The letter referred to the fact that recently some Gordon dry gin, sealed with forged labels of the commission, "was bought by our police in a very select club of a large dry city and handed over to us as 'piece a conviction.'"

"A party willing to forge a label can well be expected to sell under it any poor or even poisonous stuff that he might find profitable to deal in," the letter continues. "As a matter of fact the bottle of so-called Gordon's dry gin, above referred to, when analysed by our chemist was found to have but very distant relationship with the genuine article, and contained traces of poisonous substances."

The Province of Quebec and its Liquor Commission have been taken to task for supplying American and Ontario bootleggers with their goods. It is now perfectly clear that most of the liquor sold as having been supplied by us is counterfeit from the case to the seal."

The drug habit is still going strong, in fact, growing stronger every day, judging from the police court records. While a few are caught the vast majority of the addicts are still free. In a recent raid here the scene was appalling. In three rooms, a father, mother, ten children, ranging from three months to thirteen, one girl and two men had their residence. The children were sleeping in beds and on clothing on the floor at the time of the raid. Some four or five dozen of empty beer bottles, a lot of empty boxes labelled "Cocaine" were found. The girl was found in one of the rooms with two syringes and needles, and before her was a wine-glass filled with a colorless liquid. The police believe the girl is an addict, and was preparing a drug injection. Chinatown has its opium dens, but other parts of the city have dens for cocaine, heroin and morphine. A pitiful story is recorded in the Boston Daily Advertiser of February 21st.

"A short life and a merry one—then the grave and the hereafter." This brief rule for happiness, spoken lightly eight years ago by

G. Knowling, Ltd.

Appropriate Goods for the

HOLY SEASON OF LENT

CRUCIFIX CANDLESTICKS. Crystal42c. each. Opal65c. each.	HOLY STATUES. An exquisite assortment. 20c., 35c., 55c., 90c., 1.00 each.	HOLY WATER FONTS. Beautifully shaded and Gold traced. 40c., 55c., 85c., 1.50.
CLARKE'S FAIRY LAMPS. In Crystal, blue and Amber. All one price 50c. each.	CLARKE'S FAIRY LIGHTS. 6 and 9 hour. 37c. Box.	SCAPULAR MEDALS. 2c., 10c., 25c. each.
PRAYER BOOKS. 35c., 47c., 50c. to 1.90. Children's Prayer Books 10c.	CROSSES—Nickel & Brass 18c., 20c., 25c., 35c. to 70c. each.	CANDLES. 17c. and 27c. for package of 6 Candles.
IRISH HORN BEADS. 40, 50 to 1.00 each. Dolore Beads . . .30c. each.	PRAYER BEADS. 9c., 15c., 20c., 30c. each.	TESTAMENTS. 30c. each.
	BLESSED SACRAMENT BEADS, 9c. each. 5 WOUNDS BEADS 20c. each.	HOLY BIBLES. All Prices.

G. Knowling, Ltd.

Feb 12.16.21.27-mar.27

A Footwear for Ladies of good taste, that pleases the eye by its shapely lines, the purse by its moderate price and the foot by its delightful sense of comfort.

Made by Archibald Bros.
 Harbor Grace

PIPE!

NEW SHIPMENT

Galvanized, Black and Brass
PIPE.

Also Bar Iron, Octagon Steel, Black and Galvanized Sheets Sheet Zinc, Sheet Copper, Ingot Tin.

JOB'S STORES, Limited

Distributors

Personal.

Congratulations to W. J. Walsh, senior member for Pictou and St. Mary's, who to-day celebrates his 48th birthday, having been born in Little Pictou, now Argenteau, on March 3rd, 1880.

Get your Snow Shoes at AYRE'S, 330 pair.

From Cape Race.

Special to Evening Telegram.
CAPE RACE, To-day.
 Wind N.W., blowing strong, drifting; no ice in sight; no shipping sighted; Bar, 29.90; Ther, 32.

Shipping Notes.

S. S. Silvia leaves Halifax for this port and is due on March 3rd. S. S. Rosalind, on route to New York, is due at Halifax this evening.
WANTED—To Purchase an Encyclopedia Britannica, 11th edition, state binding and best terms; apply by letter to E. H. NICA, c/o this office.

DIAMOND
 EYE BANKING AND TRAP
 SPOT
 1 1/2 Inch CL
 WM.
 RUBBER FOR Don't suffer with splendid line of
 MEN'S STORM and $2.00
 MEN'S LOW
 toe @ $1.50
 MEN'S TAN
 @ $2.00
 LADIES' STOM
 LADIES' TAN
 @ $1.40
 CHILDREN'S CHILDREN'S MISSES' BLAU
 MISSES' TAN
 ALL IN H
 PARKER
 Feb 16.18.19.20
 Glu
 THE PR
 Ex. S. S.
 Ne
 LOVE
 One Pa
 Di
 Ght
 F. M
 Phone: 3