

Let Them Die Gently.

A report from Wesleyville says, at his meeting there on Thursday, Coaker, when attempting to speak, was so interrupted by cheers of the Opposition party and chants, that he was unable to proceed. He became extremely angry and rushed from the meeting, without his overcoat, a very unpleasant thing in the present state of Wesleyville roads. It was taken for granted that the people there did not make orderly interruption, a thing they are usually incapable of, but if they did it would be no more than the organizer

Secret Reasons.

At Salvage, B.B. Coaker, at a public meeting, said that if he were in secret Union meeting, he could give reasons why the Squires Coaker Government would be sustained, but refused to give them in public. These are the reasons they dare not

Specimen Tories.

Can you trust the Tory traitors of the "Mail," attempting to break the railway contract, 1895, an issue in 1923, because Cashin voted for it? But so did Morris, and Squires voted only a few days ago, "I was meant up in Morris's office." And did the late Sir J.S. Winter, whose name is a Squires candidate for Port Grave, and Warren, Minister of Justice, was first elected in 1902, as a supporter of the Tory party which

Candid Criticisms.

The "Mail" says that the Cashin party was in power ten years, and cost $30,000,000. During parts of the years referred to, Squires and Coaker were members of that party.

But, afterwards, they themselves spent $39,000,000 in three years, at which rate in eight years they would spend $104,000,000, or twenty-five per cent more than the Cashin Party is charged with by the "Mail."

New York, ever-changing, ever-shifting and gay, is the locale of the latest George Fitzmaurice Paramount production, "Paying the Piper," which will be displayed at the Majestic Theatre to-day. It is an original story by Ouida Bergere, who wrote the continuity for that other Fitzmaurice masterpiece of New York, "The Dance," and it possesses scenes, characters and situations that are convincingly real as did its predecessor.

Nothing Doing for Squires-Coaker Party.

AT IRELAND'S EYE, T.B.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir—Some time ago a letter appeared in the Advocate, stating that Ireland's Eye is sold for Coaker. This is a misrepresentation of the truth, for I can assure you that this place is with Bennett in his fight for the prosperity of Newfoundland, which has been taken away from us by Squires and Coaker. The people of Ireland's Eye are for Bennett, not Coaker, and on Polling Day will vote four to one against the Coaker menace. Five or six names were signed to the Advocate article, and let me tell you, Mr. Editor, that if you doubt that number, there will be very few Squires-Coaker supporters left in Ireland's Eye.

I hardly know what the writer meant when he said, "We are at your back and that Coaker can't lose." Mr. Writer, did you mean that one Union Man's vote is worth more than four votes for Bennett's Party? If you do it's a very foolish idea to think so, and you can bet your life that Squires Coaker party is going to pull only a few votes from Ireland's Eye, as the majority of people of this place were never in favor of W. F. Coaker. Why should they? I should like to know what have they done for Ireland's Eye? Why, before this present Government Ireland's Eye was a prosperous, independent little settlement. Look at it now! What a vast difference? What has caused it? Nothing but the way the Government manipulated things (our exports and imports). Just imagine what is happening to Newfoundland, the people that are leaving the land that gave them birth and a land that all Newfoundlanders should be proud of. The land where prospered their fathers and forefathers, who had bread to eat and to spare and clothing to wear. What about their descendants now? They have to leave their own native land. What for? To seek a livelihood elsewhere.

My opinion of Ireland's Eye and other places is that if things go on in the same state for another year as they have been going on for the past few years, there will not be one independent man in Ireland's Eye. They will have to go elsewhere to get support for their families or remain at home and face the depths of poverty. It matters very little to me what party is returned, if they would only give us a fair chance to live in our own country. I, like others am proud of my own country, would like to see it prosper, so as to keep our young men from going elsewhere to get a living. But the way it is now, there is nothing but starvation and poverty staring many people in the face, and I think if anyone can save her it's Bennett and his party.

William Pitt, of the 18th century, who was forced to resign his office was called back again to manage the affairs of the country while England was involved in the wars; he was called back just because no other man at that time was capable of managing the affairs of the country. It is something the same to-day. What we want is a William Pitt and the nearest we can get to him so far as managing the affairs of the country is concerned and getting her through those dull times is J. R. Bennett.

Why was the House of Assembly dissolved? Why did the Government appeal to the country for a general election? Why did not the Government remain in their offices for a full term? All over the country is a complaint of hard times and people are tired of Coakerism, but shouting for Bennett and his party, who are going to be returned with a sweeping majority.

It has been announced that J. G. Hooper, a native of Ireland's Eye, who was born and bred there, is coming out on the Bennett ticket for good old Trinity Bay. He is a man with outstanding ability and should be congratulated by all who know him. Ireland's Eye should be proud to have a man to take upon him a part of the responsibilities of the country of Newfoundland, and I am sure he will make a good statesman and do all that he can for the benefit of his country. Wishing him and the rest of the Opposition every success and thanking you in anticipation for your valuable space, I am,

Yours truly,
G.H.L.

P.S.—We regret to hear of the drowning of Giles Miller from this place at Jacksonville, U.S. The writer extends to his bereaved parents and friends sincere sympathy.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir—I am sending the following letter to the editor of the Advocate which I also ask you to publish.

Yours truly,
E. J. WORNELL.

Editor Evening Advocate.
Dear Sir—Since the middle of October, 1922, through the medium of your paper, you have told the public repeatedly that I had been kicked out of the Union, which statement is deliberately false, which I am now going to prove, hoping you will in justice to me and for your own journalistic honor, publish.

The following is a copy of Certificate I have in my possession:
GREENSPOND, Jan. 25, 1913.
Mr. E. J. Wornell.

Dear Sir—On the ground of taking your 60c. as dues for 1913 by a majority of Greenspond Council members of F.P.U., I am authorized to grant your desire.

E. J. Wornell, member of F.P.U. resigned.

Yours unforgotten,
(Sgd.) LEWIS BERRY,
Secretary.

Mr. Berry is now working at Grand Falls.

Thanking you in anticipation of space.

Legal Fees and Baby Grands.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir—Like the poor, we have always with us the Hon. Michael Patrick Gibbs; and of course he is now singing loudly the praises of the Humber Steal engineered by Squires, Reid & Co., Ltd. If there is anything corkscrewish about any political scheme you can depend that Michael has his finger in the pie. Dr. Moscell boasts that the public have a very short memory, but we men in the Labor Union can't forget the time that when we owed him $250.00 for professional services and our Executive went to pay, he glibly (I nearly said gibbly) persuaded them to present him with a Baby Grand piano instead—just to show, as he said himself, the public how much the L.S.P.U. appreciated his services. Sure, we were fools enough to be persuaded to do so—especially when the Baby Grand cost $750.00—so that he got just five hundred dollars more than we owed him. I just mention this lest we forget.

Wesley Church.

MISSIONARY SERVICES LARGELY ATTENDED.

Wesley Church can look back with pride on many successful Missionary anniversaries, but that of yesterday eclipses all previous occasions of the same class.

The morning preacher, Rev. Hammond Johnson, delivered a very eloquent sermon from John 3, 16, "God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten son," etc. He referred to the one hundred million heathens that is estimated that have not yet heard the Gospel. The magnitude of the task is appalling, but a promise of the Divine Lord comes, "I am with you" and we think of that incomprehensible "so," which we cannot analyze and few comment upon, we are left to understand that He loved so much that He gave His son. How God does love is inexpressible. The Church is not falling. When Carey went out in 1792 the offering to send out the pioneer was sixty-five dollars. Last year the Methodist Church of Canada alone raised one million, five hundred thousand dollars. But it is saddening to read that the people of Canada will spend $350,000,000 for movies and chewing gum and tobacco, and give only ten million to extend the Kingdom of God. The last point was "our personal responsibility and was just thrilling, as he spoke of all doing their duty like Nelson on the deck of the Victory. When a shot from the enemy splintered the mast and took a button off Nelson's shoe he said, "what would Hardy give to be here."

At night the church was thronged, over a thousand people being present. Rev. Dr. Fenwick led the congregation in prayer, and followed with a scriptural reading. His Excellency Sir Wm. Allardice, who presided, delivered an excellent address on the work of the Wesleyan Missionaries in Fiji Islands during his residence of over twenty years in those Islands of the Southern Pacific.

Rev. J. G. Joyce gave an interesting report of operations of the Missionary Society to which Wesley Church has given over $1,000 a year for the past seven years, reaching to $1,254 in 1921, but dropping forty-six dollars the past year.

Rev. R. J. Power, M.A., followed with a magnificent address. He referred to a speech made by Sherwood Eddy in Massey Hall, Toronto, after his return from a tour in the East which he had the privilege of hearing, and held the closest attention of the large congregation. The speaker said we are only playing at Missions, juggling with the commission of Jesus Christ, spending millions on luxuries and even the most liberal denominations giving about six cents a head for Christian Missions. What is the root of the trouble? Mr. Power said my answer is want of vital faith in Jesus Christ. His message and His mission. Let us go over the fundamentals. Do we believe that Christ is the world's Saviour, and the sole Saviour? If we doubt that we are wasting time, money and effort, if we don't believe that He is the only way to the Father and the only mediator, the missionary enterprise is unnecessary. When Duff fainted while pleading for more men for India he was carried into the vestry. When someone who recovered he begged to be allowed to go out again and speak saying that if no young man would volunteer to go, although over seventy years of age, he would go out himself. We are responsible. Christ has committed to us the Gospel of reconciliation. Is your brother in India, China or Korea to be lost? What are you going to do about it?

There was much heart searching as the speaker resumed his seat. The offerings will exceed $150.00.

Trinity Bay Wants Bennett.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir—I thank you for a space in your valuable paper for a few remarks I wish to express. Government are throwing out about the Humber. I cannot see the reason why the Opposition cannot raise up the Humber if returned to power as well as the present Government. Why these men have been raising loans and squandering our money, and how can we poor fishermen swallow another dose of poison from the present Government, after going through two doses already since the last election. The fishery regulations brought nothing but poverty upon us. The next dose was the Government supplies. Men who were independent had to go and get a bit from hand to mouth to support their families. Just picture a man when he would go to a supplier to ask for a few little things, how he would feel. Mr. Editor, I cannot say much about the members. Mr. Halford and his colleagues passed through this place last week. Didn't stay long enough to make a promise. Mr. Stone and his colleagues didn't reach here, but are going to hold a meeting on their way back, when they will receive a hearty welcome. There is one thing I noticed; only for the Evening Telegram hundreds as well as myself would not know anything about the squandering of our country's money. But, Sir, the present Government is cracked around the bottom, and on polling day it is going to drop out and we are going to have Bennett and Better Times.

Yours faithfully,
