The Bounties on the Canadian Production of Iron.

Hon. Mr. Blair Exposes a Foolish Contention as to Partisanship-The New Postag : Stamps.

Ottawa, June 26 .- In the house yessidered the resolutions providing for steel manufactured from Canadian ore was to make amends to some extent for the loss the iron industries would sustain by reason of the reduction of duties on iron coming into Canada. The estimate was that $2.50 a ton on the average on a production of 70,000 tons would equal $175,000 on iron puddled bars; at $3 a ton on 4,500 tons the payment would be $13,500, and on steel ingots $3 a ton, $45,000, or a total annual payment of $225,500.

Mr. Foster objected to the condition attached to the bounties, that they uld be paid only on iron used in principle of paying a bounty on goods exported as open to serious objections,

Mr. Foster also objected to the powand steel be exported from Canada. Sir Adolphe Caron said that the Radnor furnace exported to Germany and other places.

Mr. Fielding asked the committee not to forget that pig iron had been cheapened to the manufacturers of iron and steel by the reduction of the duty on duties on iron and steel sent out of the country, but if iron produced for home consumption received the bounty and was then exported the government should impose an export duty.

The proposal passed.

STARTLING CHANGE. For the men-of-war that first saluted the Queen in the long ago were magnificent sights, with their high decks and towering masts, bearing billow on low of swelling sail, riding the waves like great seabirds and realizing to the full all the wild witchery of the romance of the ocean. Far different were the great battleships this morning, with their sullen steel sides and short masts, great guns, rams and torpedoes—everything that gave the sense of power, the brutality of force. The total array of armed vessels was 166, manned by 45,000 men, and moored in lines of five miles each. The fourteen foreign warships formed the sixth line. The aggregate British tonnage was about 600,000 tons IN LINE OF BATTLE.

Never before, therefore, had a soverign seen such changes in the bulwarks of empire as has fallen to the lot of Queen Victoria. At Spithead this morning were assembled the latest triumphs of industrial resolution under Victoria; triumphs of workers in iron and steel and metals; triumphs of chemists and the giants of the laboratory; triumphs of the shipbuilder, the engineer and the artisan; triumphs of the genius of a great nation. This may be demonstrated better by figures.

The stately lin-ers were trimmed with a near approach to what is possible in ships, and the long string of flags from stem to taffrail showed up very effectively in the morning sky. The smart yachts were daintily beflagged, but not much could be said for the rest. It was at eight o'clock, a signal from the Renown, Sir Nowell Salmon's flagship, there broke out on every war vessel a perfect ERUPTION OF COLOR. Each ship spread every stitch of bunting it possessed—streamers from every spar, and land rainbows over all. The flags were mainly signals of the international and naval codes, and their multiform color added very perceptibly to an ensemble which was as striking as it was unprecedented.
