

A Shade For You

Every style, color and design of Window Shade kept in stock.

O. B. GRAVES, 222 Dundas St.

A Pointer.

Have you a headache? Do your eyes trouble you? If so, we can relieve you.

Globe Optical Co., Dundas

A Light For Summer

Electric lights save you endless worry during the summer. No heat, no smoke, no dirt.

London Electric Co., 359 Richmond St.

H. C. McBRIDE, Architect and Surveyor, 213 Dundas St.

W. S. LOCKHART, House Decorator, Painting, Paperhanging, Residence, Beaconsfield avenue.

P. McPHILLIPS, BARRISTER, Office and Residence 335 King St.

USE HUNT BROS.' DIAMOND FLOUR

R. K. COWAN, BARRISTER, SOLICITOR, ETC., County Bldg., next Court House, London

J. Ferguson & Sons UNDERTAKERS, 180 King St., Phone 543 and 578.

Plumbing. You practice true economy when you engage Smith Bros. & Co.'s service. Expert plumbers to perform all work quickly and thoroughly—three superintendents to see that the work is properly completed. Consult us about the cost of repair work or the most modern new plumbing.

PLUMBING.

Smith Bros. & Co., 265 Dundas Street.

INCREASE YOUR BUSINESS by having EFFICIENT TELEPHONE FACILITIES. We will quote you rates on a Private-Branch Exchange System in your Office, Warehouse or Factory.

The BELL TELEPHONE CO. OF CANADA, Ltd.

FIRE! WATER! SMOKE!

Everything must be sold within the next 20 days regardless of price.

London Hardware Co., 121 Dundas Street. Phone 326.

Open Evenings, 7:30 to 10.

47bc-zxv

47bc-zxv

47bc-zxv

47bc-zxv

47bc-zxv

47bc-zxv

47bc-zxv

47bc-zxv

47bc-zxv

47bc-zxv

47bc-zxv

47bc-zxv

47bc-zxv

47bc-zxv

47bc-zxv

47bc-zxv

47bc-zxv

47bc-zxv

47bc-zxv

47bc-zxv

47bc-zxv

FLOWERS for All Seasons

GAMMAGE & SONS.

AT THE Market Grocery

24 lbs Redpath's Granulated Sugar...$1.00
25 lbs Redpath's Yellow Sugar...$1.00
25 lbs Barbados Raw Sugar...$1.00
Roll Butter...$1.00 per lb
Crock Butter...$1.00 per lb
Fresh Eggs...$1.00 per dozen

H. T. Johnston, 103 King Street.

THE CANADA TRUST CO.,

MANAGED IN CONNECTION WITH THE HURON AND BRIB LOAN AND SAVINGS CO.

CAN BE OF SERVICE AS Executor of Wills, Administrator of Estates, Agent for Executors, etc., Investment Agent for Trust and Private Funds.

Correspondence and interviews invited.

GEORGE A. SOMERVILLE, Managing Director, 442 RICHMOND ST., LONDON.

DR. R. D. JARVIS, DENTIST, Office, Duffield Block, Corner Dundas and Clarence Streets.

London Advertiser.

A Breakfast Favorite...

Our dry roasted Coffee has gained a wide reputation for superior excellence. Every pound is carefully selected. Won't you try a pound?

HARRY RANAHAN, 515 Richmond St. Phone 1024.

Notice to Readers.

Subscribers who intend spending their vacation out of the city can have their paper mailed to any address without extra charge.

LONDON AND DISTRICT

The concert which was to have been given by the Twenty-Sixth band in Victoria Park tonight has been postponed until Tuesday evening next.

The Port Huron Herald says: John Boggs, son of London, and Emma Duncan, of Brantford, were married Monday afternoon in the county clerk's office by Judge George.

The trustees of the Protestant Orphan's Home held their monthly meeting at the home on Monday afternoon. In the unavoidable absence of the president, Mr. McCallum, the chair was taken by Mrs. Murphy, who proceeded with business, first calling for the several reports, which all proved satisfactory. Other business transacted was of a routine nature, the Thousands at the Irish Benevolent Society Picnic.

Portion of Day's Programme Was Carried Out.

Remaining Events To Be Decided in This City—Banquet Was a Jolly Affair.

"You can't keep a good man down," says a popular song of the vintage of a year or two ago. Evidently every Irishman—and Irishwoman, too—is a mighty good man, for not all the concentrated bombardment of heaven's artillery and musketry could keep down for a moment the irrepressible spirits of the thousands who attended the twenty-sixth annual picnic of the Irish Benevolent Society at Port Stanley.

With characteristic Irish abandon to the spirit of the occasion, they had gone to the Port determined to have a glorious time. They had it, despite the fact that the Irish history section about to repeat itself in that "same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up and the windows of heaven were opened."

As has doubtless been the prior experience of many present, it was proven beyond a doubt that water and Irish spirits assimilated very well.

It will not be beside the mark to say that yesterday's picnic, given favorable weather, would have been far and away the most successful of the many notable events of the kind which the society has conducted in the past. Not less than five thousand people went to the lakeside resort during the day, and how many more would have gone down had the skies been propitious can only be left to conjecture. From London alone at least four thousand people went down on the six big trains which were run during the morning and the afternoon. There were large accessions to the crowd at St. Thomas and the other intermediate stations. An excursion over the Wabash from Glenora brought in between 300 and 400 people, while the L. E. and D. R. R. ran an excursion from Ridgeway and intervening points. When to these are added the many who drove to the Port from St. Thomas and the rural portions of Elgin, it will easily be seen that the estimate of attendance is in nowise exaggerated.

The day gave promise of being a fine one, and this tempted many people to go down on the earlier trains, which left at 9, 9:45 and 11 a.m. Equally well laden with the trains which left at 1:15 and 2:30 p.m., and even the depressing aspect of the dripping skies did not deter a surprisingly large crowd from going at 5:35 p.m.

Many people—and they were wise

Stores will be open.

The holiday tomorrow will not be generally observed in this city. In official quarters it will be, but not in business circles. The stores will remain open the same as usual.

FLLOURISHING POTATOES.

Something has been said lately about the extraordinary growth of potato vines in some localities. Mr. Richard Barrett, of Komoka, has a phenomenal patch in his garden. A specimen vine shown yesterday to an Advertiser man, measured five feet six inches in length, and there are many other just as long in Mr. Barrett's garden. The seed was planted in March.

CLOSED NEXT WEEK.

The public library board met last night and decided to keep the library open on Coronation Day, but it will be closed all of next week and possibly longer. Librarian Blackwell's report showed the July circulation to have been as follows: J. 20,000, K. 20,000, L. 20,000, M. 20,000, N. 20,000, O. 20,000, P. 20,000, Q. 20,000, R. 20,000, S. 20,000, T. 20,000, U. 20,000, V. 20,000, W. 20,000, X. 20,000, Y. 20,000, Z. 20,000. Average per day, 223. Fines aggregated $18.25. William

Thousands at the Irish Benevolent Society Picnic.

Portion of Day's Programme Was Carried Out.

Remaining Events To Be Decided in This City—Banquet Was a Jolly Affair.

"You can't keep a good man down," says a popular song of the vintage of a year or two ago. Evidently every Irishman—and Irishwoman, too—is a mighty good man, for not all the concentrated bombardment of heaven's artillery and musketry could keep down for a moment the irrepressible spirits of the thousands who attended the twenty-sixth annual picnic of the Irish Benevolent Society at Port Stanley.

With characteristic Irish abandon to the spirit of the occasion, they had gone to the Port determined to have a glorious time. They had it, despite the fact that the Irish history section about to repeat itself in that "same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up and the windows of heaven were opened."

As has doubtless been the prior experience of many present, it was proven beyond a doubt that water and Irish spirits assimilated very well.

It will not be beside the mark to say that yesterday's picnic, given favorable weather, would have been far and away the most successful of the many notable events of the kind which the society has conducted in the past. Not less than five thousand people went to the lakeside resort during the day, and how many more would have gone down had the skies been propitious can only be left to conjecture. From London alone at least four thousand people went down on the six big trains which were run during the morning and the afternoon. There were large accessions to the crowd at St. Thomas and the other intermediate stations. An excursion over the Wabash from Glenora brought in between 300 and 400 people, while the L. E. and D. R. R. ran an excursion from Ridgeway and intervening points. When to these are added the many who drove to the Port from St. Thomas and the rural portions of Elgin, it will easily be seen that the estimate of attendance is in nowise exaggerated.

The day gave promise of being a fine one, and this tempted many people to go down on the earlier trains, which left at 9, 9:45 and 11 a.m. Equally well laden with the trains which left at 1:15 and 2:30 p.m., and even the depressing aspect of the dripping skies did not deter a surprisingly large crowd from going at 5:35 p.m.

Many people—and they were wise

Stores will be open.

The holiday tomorrow will not be generally observed in this city. In official quarters it will be, but not in business circles. The stores will remain open the same as usual.

FLLOURISHING POTATOES.

Something has been said lately about the extraordinary growth of potato vines in some localities. Mr. Richard Barrett, of Komoka, has a phenomenal patch in his garden. A specimen vine shown yesterday to an Advertiser man, measured five feet six inches in length, and there are many other just as long in Mr. Barrett's garden. The seed was planted in March.

Souvenir Post Cards of the City.

Beautiful half-tone views of Dundas street, Queen's avenue, Springbank, St. Paul's, St. Peter's, St. Andrew's, Normal School, Court House and Victoria Park.

3 Views on Each Card. 5 cents each, 2 for 5 cents.

Anderson's Bookstore, 183 Dundas Street.

4 PER CENT DEBENTURES

The Ontario Loan and Debenture Company, OFFICE: Cor. Dundas St. & Market Lane London.

Paid-Up Capital, $1,200,000. Reserve Fund, $560,000.

3½ Per Cent on Deposits

JOHN MCCLARY, President. WM. F. BULLEN, Manager.

reading of several letters of application for children to enter the home, or in other cases for boys and girls to go out as help, all of which was easily settled at the meeting. The ladies were deeply grateful to learn of the happy treats that had been afforded the children during the month, when Miss Cissie Armstrong, daughter of Mr. J. W. Armstrong, entertained the children at Springbank, and later in the month, when Mr. G. C. Gibbons took them to the circus, providing a special car for them and the lunch when the entertainment was over. To the following kind donors, who have during the past month remembered the little ones at the home, the trustees feel heartily grateful: Mr. Rowland Hill, Shaw-Wood, Memorial Church Sunday School, Mr. Boomer, Mrs. Charles Gibson, City Relief Officer McCallum, Mrs. A. E. Cooper, Boston Confectionery.

Stores will be open.

The holiday tomorrow will not be generally observed in this city. In official quarters it will be, but not in business circles. The stores will remain open the same as usual.

FLLOURISHING POTATOES.

Something has been said lately about the extraordinary growth of potato vines in some localities. Mr. Richard Barrett, of Komoka, has a phenomenal patch in his garden. A specimen vine shown yesterday to an Advertiser man, measured five feet six inches in length, and there are many other just as long in Mr. Barrett's garden. The seed was planted in March.

CLOSED NEXT WEEK.

The public library board met last night and decided to keep the library open on Coronation Day, but it will be closed all of next week and possibly longer. Librarian Blackwell's report showed the July circulation to have been as follows: J. 20,000, K. 20,000, L. 20,000, M. 20,000, N. 20,000, O. 20,000, P. 20,000, Q. 20,000, R. 20,000, S. 20,000, T. 20,000, U. 20,000, V. 20,000, W. 20,000, X. 20,000, Y. 20,000, Z. 20,000. Average per day, 223. Fines aggregated $18.25. William

Thousands at the Irish Benevolent Society Picnic.

Portion of Day's Programme Was Carried Out.

Remaining Events To Be Decided in This City—Banquet Was a Jolly Affair.

"You can't keep a good man down," says a popular song of the vintage of a year or two ago. Evidently every Irishman—and Irishwoman, too—is a mighty good man, for not all the concentrated bombardment of heaven's artillery and musketry could keep down for a moment the irrepressible spirits of the thousands who attended the twenty-sixth annual picnic of the Irish Benevolent Society at Port Stanley.

With characteristic Irish abandon to the spirit of the occasion, they had gone to the Port determined to have a glorious time. They had it, despite the fact that the Irish history section about to repeat itself in that "same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up and the windows of heaven were opened."

As has doubtless been the prior experience of many present, it was proven beyond a doubt that water and Irish spirits assimilated very well.

It will not be beside the mark to say that yesterday's picnic, given favorable weather, would have been far and away the most successful of the many notable events of the kind which the society has conducted in the past. Not less than five thousand people went to the lakeside resort during the day, and how many more would have gone down had the skies been propitious can only be left to conjecture. From London alone at least four thousand people went down on the six big trains which were run during the morning and the afternoon. There were large accessions to the crowd at St. Thomas and the other intermediate stations. An excursion over the Wabash from Glenora brought in between 300 and 400 people, while the L. E. and D. R. R. ran an excursion from Ridgeway and intervening points. When to these are added the many who drove to the Port from St. Thomas and the rural portions of Elgin, it will easily be seen that the estimate of attendance is in nowise exaggerated.

The day gave promise of being a fine one, and this tempted many people to go down on the earlier trains, which left at 9, 9:45 and 11 a.m. Equally well laden with the trains which left at 1:15 and 2:30 p.m., and even the depressing aspect of the dripping skies did not deter a surprisingly large crowd from going at 5:35 p.m.

Many people—and they were wise

Stores will be open.

The holiday tomorrow will not be generally observed in this city. In official quarters it will be, but not in business circles. The stores will remain open the same as usual.

FLLOURISHING POTATOES.

Something has been said lately about the extraordinary growth of potato vines in some localities. Mr. Richard Barrett, of Komoka, has a phenomenal patch in his garden. A specimen vine shown yesterday to an Advertiser man, measured five feet six inches in length, and there are many other just as long in Mr. Barrett's garden. The seed was planted in March.

CLOSED NEXT WEEK.

The public library board met last night and decided to keep the library open on Coronation Day, but it will be closed all of next week and possibly longer. Librarian Blackwell's report showed the July circulation to have been as follows: J. 20,000, K. 20,000, L. 20,000, M. 20,000, N. 20,000, O. 20,000, P. 20,000, Q. 20,000, R. 20,000, S. 20,000, T. 20,000, U. 20,000, V. 20,000, W. 20,000, X. 20,000, Y. 20,000, Z. 20,000. Average per day, 223. Fines aggregated $18.25. William

Thousands at the Irish Benevolent Society Picnic.

Portion of Day's Programme Was Carried Out.

Remaining Events To Be Decided in This City—Banquet Was a Jolly Affair.

"You can't keep a good man down," says a popular song of the vintage of a year or two ago. Evidently every Irishman—and Irishwoman, too—is a mighty good man, for not all the concentrated bombardment of heaven's artillery and musketry could keep down for a moment the irrepressible spirits of the thousands who attended the twenty-sixth annual picnic of the Irish Benevolent Society at Port Stanley.

With characteristic Irish abandon to the spirit of the occasion, they had gone to the Port determined to have a glorious time. They had it, despite the fact that the Irish history section about to repeat itself in that "same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up and the windows of heaven were opened."

As has doubtless been the prior experience of many present, it was proven beyond a doubt that water and Irish spirits assimilated very well.

It will not be beside the mark to say that yesterday's picnic, given favorable weather, would have been far and away the most successful of the many notable events of the kind which the society has conducted in the past. Not less than five thousand people went to the lakeside resort during the day, and how many more would have gone down had the skies been propitious can only be left to conjecture. From London alone at least four thousand people went down on the six big trains which were run during the morning and the afternoon. There were large accessions to the crowd at St. Thomas and the other intermediate stations. An excursion over the Wabash from Glenora brought in between 300 and 400 people, while the L. E. and D. R. R. ran an excursion from Ridgeway and intervening points. When to these are added the many who drove to the Port from St. Thomas and the rural portions of Elgin, it will easily be seen that the estimate of attendance is in nowise exaggerated.

The day gave promise of being a fine one, and this tempted many people to go down on the earlier trains, which left at 9, 9:45 and 11 a.m. Equally well laden with the trains which left at 1:15 and 2:30 p.m., and even the depressing aspect of the dripping skies did not deter a surprisingly large crowd from going at 5:35 p.m.

Many people—and they were wise

Stores will be open.

The holiday tomorrow will not be generally observed in this city. In official quarters it will be, but not in business circles. The stores will remain open the same as usual.

FLLOURISHING POTATOES.

Something has been said lately about the extraordinary growth of potato vines in some localities. Mr. Richard Barrett, of Komoka, has a phenomenal patch in his garden. A specimen vine shown yesterday to an Advertiser man, measured five feet six inches in length, and there are many other just as long in Mr. Barrett's garden. The seed was planted in March.

CLOSED NEXT WEEK.

The public library board met last night and decided to keep the library open on Coronation Day, but it will be closed all of next week and possibly longer. Librarian Blackwell's report showed the July circulation to have been as follows: J. 20,000, K. 20,000, L. 20,000, M. 20,000, N. 20,000, O. 20,000, P. 20,000, Q. 20,000, R. 20,000, S. 20,000, T. 20,000, U. 20,000, V. 20,000, W. 20,000, X. 20,000, Y. 20,000, Z. 20,000. Average per day, 223. Fines aggregated $18.25. William

Thousands at the Irish Benevolent Society Picnic.

Portion of Day's Programme Was Carried Out.

Remaining Events To Be Decided in This City—Banquet Was a Jolly Affair.

Telephone 317

for the choicest of fresh fruits, vegetables and general groceries.

You can rely on getting your order just as carefully filled as if you ordered personally. Try us.

For Saturday—Choice sugar corn, tomatoes, celery, cauliflowers, beans, and all domestic vegetables.

New comb honey.....15c
Pure maple syrup, per bottle.....30c

Heinz's sweet mixed pickles, per quart.....35c

Oatsups—Snider's, Heinz's, Columbia—the best brands.

Canned and Potted Meats—We have a complete assortment of the finest brands packed.

Extra Sifted Peas—New pack—These are the finest peas packed in Canada; you'll say so if you try them; 2 cans for.....25c

T. A. ROWAT & CO., 234 Dundas Street.

Buchanan was given the contract for coal at $7 per ton.

GIFT DAY AT KNOXWOOD PARK.

Saturday will be gift day at Knoxwood Park and the management with its accustomed liberality will present to every man and to every woman who visits Knoxwood Park on that day a valuable gift. Their window at 20 Dundas street is filled with the presents they propose to give away, consisting of jewelry, table cutlery, pocket knives and toilet articles galore.

besides a fine display of briar wood pipes. It will not be necessary to purchase a lot to secure some one of these articles, for everyone will receive a

PUGNACIOUS JEFF.

Forest Free Press: On Monday four visitors from Strathroy and London who were fishing at Kettle Point in boats were assaulted by Jeff Bressette from another boat. Jeff went at the visitors' boats with a sledge hammer and damaged two boats which belong to Geo. Smith. The fishermen pulled the shore, rather than engage in a conflict with the madman, who probably have been drowned. Detective Murray arrived here yesterday evening to investigate the matter. Jeff proposes to reserve the reserve for the Indians.

Thousands at the Irish Benevolent Society Picnic.

Portion of Day's Programme Was Carried Out.

Remaining Events To Be Decided in This City—Banquet Was a Jolly Affair.

"You can't keep a good man down," says a popular song of the vintage of a year or two ago. Evidently every Irishman—and Irishwoman, too—is a mighty good man, for not all the concentrated bombardment of heaven's artillery and musketry could keep down for a moment the irrepressible spirits of the thousands who attended the twenty-sixth annual picnic of the Irish Benevolent Society at Port Stanley.

With characteristic Irish abandon to the spirit of the occasion, they had gone to the Port determined to have a glorious time. They had it, despite the fact that the Irish history section about to repeat itself in that "same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up and the windows of heaven were opened."

As has doubtless been the prior experience of many present, it was proven beyond a doubt that water and Irish spirits assimilated very well.

It will not be beside the mark to say that yesterday's picnic, given favorable weather, would have been far and away the most successful of the many notable events of the kind which the society has conducted in the past. Not less than five thousand people went to the lakeside resort during the day, and how many more would have gone down had the skies been propitious can only be left to conjecture. From London alone at least four thousand people went down on the six big trains which were run during the morning and the afternoon. There were large accessions to the crowd at St. Thomas and the other intermediate stations. An excursion over the Wabash from Glenora brought in between 300 and 400 people, while the L. E. and D. R. R. ran an excursion from Ridgeway and intervening points. When to these are added the many who drove to the Port from St. Thomas and the rural portions of Elgin, it will easily be seen that the estimate of attendance is in nowise exaggerated.

The day gave promise of being a fine one, and this tempted many people to go down on the earlier trains, which left at 9, 9:45 and 11 a.m. Equally well laden with the trains which left at 1:15 and 2:30 p.m., and even the depressing aspect of the dripping skies did not deter a surprisingly large crowd from going at 5:35 p.m.

Many people—and they were wise

Stores will be open.

The holiday tomorrow will not be generally observed in this city. In official quarters it will be, but not in business circles. The stores will remain open the same as usual.

FLLOURISHING POTATOES.

Something has been said lately about the extraordinary growth of potato vines in some localities. Mr. Richard Barrett, of Komoka, has a phenomenal patch in his garden. A