FOR HOUSEKEEPERS.

There was a very slim attendance at the market here this forenoon; not over thirty vehicles with produce on the market during the morning. There were not many buyers, owing to the dealers and grocers having laid in large stocks for the holidays. Saturday next should see a large attendance, and no doubt good prices and a good demand will prevail on that day.

Hay and straw—Thirty-five loads of hay on the street; a great deal of it is of inferior quality, selling at $8, $9, and in several cases $10 a ton was paid.

Butter and Eggs—There was not enough of these articles offered to warrant a change in present quotations.

Apples—A couple of loads of fair to good quality was offered at $2.50 to $3.00 per barrel.

Vegetables—Two loads of potatoes were held at 70c to 75c per bag; other vegetables are unchanged in price.

Poultry—Very little offered and no change in prices from those quoted.

Dressed Hogs—Only about a half dozen on sale at $8 to $9 per cwt.

Live Hogs—Prices are higher, having advanced to $9.25 to $9.50, with a paid on Monday next. Packers say that the situation is uncertain as the demand for bacon in the English markets is unsettled.

CUPID'S NEW YEAR CALLS

Festive Little Fellow Was Unusually Active.

Many Hearts and Hands Joined on First Day of 1902.

Miss Lillian Cameron Becomes Bride of Mr. Leslie G. Christie—Other Weddings.

Miss Lillian Viola Cameron, daughter of Sheriff and Mrs. Cameron, was married at 3:30 o'clock New Year's Day to Mr. Leslie G. Christie, of Toronto. After the post-nuptial reception at "Longwood," the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Christie left for the Eastern and Southern States, where they will spend an extended honeymoon.

The wedding, which took place in St. James' Presbyterian Church, was a quiet, but very pretty event. The interior of the church was made beautiful with foliage and flowers. The ceremony was performed by the pastor of the church, Rev. A. J. McGillivray. The bridesmaids were Miss Mabel Christie, sister of the groom, and Miss Victoria Cameron, sister of the bride. Mr. J. R. Walker, of Toronto, assisted the groom. The ushers were Messrs. Kenneth Cameron, Keith Cameron, Fred Christie and A. Bixel.

The bride's gown was an exquisite creation of heavy duchess satin, embroidered with guipure of tulle and lace. The bodice was finely tucked, and the seams oddly and beautifully finished in heavy silk herringbone. The satin sleeves, to the elbow, were finished with quaint puffs of tucked chiffon, with pointed cut falling over the hand. The finishing touch to the whole gown was a beautiful heron of old rose point lace falling gracefully to the waist. The veil was of tulle, and fell to the edge of the long train, and was prettily trimmed with sprays of lilies of the valley. The bride carried a beautiful shower bouquet of white roses and lilies of the valley.

The bridesmaid's gown was a handsome green chevron coat and skirt with tulle of tulle of a soft shade of green, finely tucked and trimmed with white tulle. The hat was of turquoise blue velvet, trimmed with handsome black beavers and steel buckles.

The bridesmaid's gowns were of pale blue tulle, the skirts being tucked diagonally and finished with graduated dounce, with wide applique of deep cream tulle. The bodices also were tucked diagonally and finished with the same cream applique. The gowns being completed by a large rose of blue velvet. The hats were large Gainsboroughs of pale blue punnet velvet, each having a white plume fastened with a long rhinestone buckle. The flowers carried were pink carnations tied with pink ribbons.

The ceremony was followed by a reception at "Longwood," the beautiful home of the bride's parents.

In the evening an enjoyable theater party was given by the community, and ushers. The scarlet uniforms of the gentlemen from the Royal Military College formed a very pretty picture, and the charming bridesmaids in their bridal gowns.

BROWN-MILLER.

Of the New Year's weddings that were solemnized yesterday, none was prettier than that of Miss Netta Miller, of Toronto, and Mr. Leslie Wood Brown, of Brantford, which took place at the residence of the bride's brother-in-law, Mr. Chas. Firth, of 119 King street, the groom.

The bride, a daughter of the late John R. Miller, formerly of the law firm of Miller & Duncan, of Toronto, after wedding gown was of white Persian lawn, and she wore a bridal veil with orange blossoms. Miss Helen Brown, of Toronto, who was bridesmaid, was beautifully dressed in blue tulle, trimmed with Honiton lace. The duties of best man were performed by Mr. Charles Winyard, of Toronto, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Robert Johnston, D.D., pastor of St. Andrew's Church. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. Raymond A. Miller, barrister of Toronto, and during the ceremony her sister, Mrs. Charles Firth, played Lohe's Wedding March. A dainty luncheon was served, and subsequently by Mr. and Mrs. Brown left for a short trip, which will end at Brantford, their future home. Only the bride's and groom's relatives comprised the bridal party, but the good wishes of their friends, especially in Toronto, Brantford and this city, were shown by the very many handsome gifts that they received.

SHAW-ARNOLD.

A very pretty wedding took place in the Methodist Church at Parkhill New Year's Day, when one of the town's most highly esteemed young ladies, Miss Florence Arnold, daughter of the late Wm. Arnold, was united in holy wedlock with Mr. Harry Shaw, of Brantford, who was escorted by his brother-in-law, Mr. Chas. Firth, of Toronto, and during the ceremony her sister, Mrs. Charles Firth, played Lohe's Wedding March. A dainty luncheon was served, and subsequently by Mr. and Mrs. Shaw left for a short trip, which will end at Brantford, their future home. Only the bride's and groom's relatives comprised the bridal party, but the good wishes of their friends, especially in Toronto, Brantford and this city, were shown by the very many handsome gifts that they received.

BARR-CLAXTON.

A quiet wedding took place on New Year's day at the residence of the bride's sister, Mrs. C. J. Ross, 570 Pall Mall street, when Jean May Barr, of Toronto, daughter of the late Alexander Barr, and niece of Robert Barr (Luke Sharp) novelist, was united in marriage by Rev. C. S. G. Boone, to George J. Claxton, publisher of the Ridgeway Plaindealer. The bride and groom are both well known in Ridgeway, where Mrs. Claxton at one time lived. Mr. Claxton succeeded Mr. E. Mackay as publisher and editor of the Ridgeway Plaindealer about three years ago, and since coming to town has won the respect of a large circle of friends. The bride is a young lady of attainments, excellent particularly as a vocalist. Their many friends extend congratulations.

INCH-BEARES.

A very quiet wedding was solemnized at the parsonage of the Wellington Street Methodist Church by the Rev. R. D. Hamilton, the contracting parties being Miss Lena, Alfreda Beares and Mr. James Burt Inch, of this city. The bride was attended by Miss Louie Harris; the groom by his brother, Mr. Dick Inch. The happy couple have the good wishes of a large circle of friends, who wish them much happiness and prosperity.

MADGE-JOHNSON.

Miss Mary Ellen Johnson, daughter of Mr. Samuel Johnson, was married to Mr. Filias W. Madge, of Mitchell, yesterday afternoon. The wedding was a very quiet nature. Rev. C. Scott, E.A., performed the ceremony, the bride being attended by Miss Mary J. Long, and the groom by Mr. W. J. Ellis.

STONE-GERRY.

An exceedingly pretty home wedding took place yesterday at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Gerry, 39 Craig street, when their eldest daughter, Miss Mary Gerry, was united in marriage to Mr. Nelson Stone, of Highgate, by the Rev. J. W. Holmes, assisted by Rev. Walter Ayres. The bride, handsomely gowned in cream tulle with carrying bride roses, entered the drawing-room on the arm of her father, to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, which was played by Miss Victoria Cameron, Miss Maude Gerry, sister of the groom, and Miss Victoria Cameron, sister of the bride. Mr. Jas. McLaren, of Highgate, cousin of the groom, officiated as best man. After congratulations and best wishes, the bride and groom, guests numbering about 60 repaired to the dining-room, where a wedding luncheon was served. The groom's best man was Mr. Nelson Stone, of Highgate, and the bridesmaid was Miss Victoria Cameron, sister of the groom. Among the guests present were friends from Chatham, Detroit, Hamilton, Highgate, Essex and St. Thomas.

SUTTON-NICOL.

An interesting wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nicol, of Thamesford, on Tuesday afternoon, when their youngest daughter, Miss Jennie, was united in marriage to Mr. Chas. Sutton, of Essex, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Mr. Watson. The bride was handsomely attired in white Swiss organdie, trimmed with Valenciennes lace and silk ribbon. She carried a bouquet of bridal roses. The bride was assisted by Miss Ethel Sutton, sister of the groom. She was charmingly attired in cream cashmere and carried a bouquet of white Swiss organdie. The groom was supported by Mr. James E. Nicol, of Orangeville, brother of the bride. The bride received many beautiful and useful presents, and among them was a handsome gold watch and chain, presented by the groom. Mr. and Mrs. Sutton left on the evening train for Toronto and other eastern points.

COULD SCARCELY WALK

This Man Was in a Very Bad Way, But at Last Found a Perfect Cure.

At Brantford, Ont., Dec. 31. This most significant statement is being published by Mr. J. H. Martin, of this place:

"For eighteen years I have suffered with a severe backache, which was so bad that I could scarcely walk or lie down at times. I tried many medicines, but got no better till I used Dodd's Kidney Pills. As soon as I began this treatment I commenced to improve very rapidly, and now I can do my work without any trouble. They are the greatest medicine I have ever used, and I would not be without them. I most heartily recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills for backache."

Those who know Mr. Martin know that he means every word he says, and his plain statement is a very great weight. Dodd's Kidney Pills are very popular in Brantford.

CHARGED WITH TWO MURDERS.

Greenfield, Mass., Jan. 2.—Louis Bitzer, the Turner's Falls Jeweler, who shot and killed his clerk, Miss Ida Columbe, and his five-year-old son Louis, and seriously wounded his wife and two daughters, was arraigned on two charges of murder. To each charge he entered a plea of not guilty, and was held for hearing on Jan. 10. The two wounded daughters and Mrs. Bitzer are progressing favorably.

THE OZONE COMPANY.

Gentlemen: In view of the very satisfactory results obtained in our family by the use of Ozone, "The New System of Curing Disease," we take great pleasure in sending you for publication a short statement of the same.

Our little girl, now 14 years of age, has been troubled from babyhood with a peculiar throat weakness. Her throat would swell up every little while, and she would be very distressing. Every known remedy was applied and medical skill appealed to in vain.

Each year the trouble grew worse until it became apparent that the swelling was due to the inflamed throat, from which mucus matter would ooze out on the pillow through the night. Twice she broke out and discharged a quantity of mucus, mingled with blood, and it was at this juncture, when at a loss to know how to cope with the disease, that we heard of Ozone. Our child had used one small bottle of the remedy, and had a large one, and the ulcerous condition has quite disappeared, while she seems better and stronger every day.

We cannot recommend Ozone too highly to all sufferers, as we understand it applies alike to all germ disease, and we feel very grateful to the overruling Providence for its success in our family.

Wishing you much success in London and elsewhere, we are, Very truly yours, (Signed) Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cooper, 74 Byron Ave., London, Ont.

Powley's Liquefied Ozone is oxygen in stable liquid form. It destroys the germs of disease and their toxins, makes the system healthy and strong. It is a preparation that cures when all other methods and treatments fail. Your neighbor will tell you how good it is for you. You need not experiment in taking Powley's Liquefied Ozone.

If you desire our physicians to give you advice on your particular case, make a detailed statement of just how you feel and the way you are affected. They will give you advice absolutely free of charge. Address the Consulting Department of the Liquefied Ozone Company, 220 King Street, Chicago, Ill.
