Church Census Visitors

Their Work Was Successfully Carried Out Yesterday Afternoon.

Those in charge of the church census which was taken yesterday in this city are delighted with its results, and feel well rewarded for the hard work which they have been doing for the past few weeks, culminating in yesterday's house-to-house visitation. The supervisors of districts and their friends met on the second floor of the Y. M. C. T. building at 9 o'clock last evening, with Rev. James Rollins presiding, and the reports received from all parts of the field were most encouraging. The 500 visitors were well received by the citizens, and the desired information was readily given, except in a very few cases. It will take some time, of course, to compile the results of the canvass in the form of statistics, but it is expected that they will be ready by Monday.

As the hundreds of cards were brought in by the supervisors last night, they were sorted out, classified and placed in piles on a large table, each pile representing those who attend or belong to, or favor a certain denomination. These cards will be taken to the supervisors sharply on time. Some did not put in an appearance, but there were plenty of others who got through work early to take their places. Many of the visitors had greatly dreaded the London Art Culture Club to the Convalescent Home.

—Miss Sarah Hall, of 461 Quebec street, wishes to thank her friends for kindnesses extended to her on the occasion of the death of her father and mother.
—Medical Health Officer Hutchinson has again been notified that "Slink" veal is being purchased around Dorchester for a London firm. The matter has been placed in the crown attorney's hands.
—Mrs. Thomas Heron is visiting her son, W. J. Heron, Ridgeway.
—Mr. A. S. Harkness, Alvinston, will visit for a week with his son here.
—Mr. H. W. Buchanan, who has been in Toronto for the past few days, returned last evening.
—Commencing at Sarnia tomorrow, the Bishop of Huron will conduct the rite of confirmation throughout the diocese of Lambton during next week.

—Mr. L. H. Dampier, manager of the Canadian Baseball Club, is at Strathroy, has been brought to the city to undergo treatment at the hospital for appendicitis.
—The McClary Baseball Society and the McClary Baseball Club will celebrate the opening of the new warehouse on Adelaide street by giving an assist on Friday evening next in the new building.

—A very pleasing recital of music was given last evening at Somerset Hall, by the choir of Mrs. Gertrude Penhale Harrison. The latter was assisted by Miss Gertrude L. Hart, the well-known elocutionist.

—MacNab Street (Hamilton) Presbyterians have extended a unanimous call to Rev. H. B. Ketchen, who has been assisting Rev. Dr. Torrance, of St. Paul's Church, Hamilton, in his work. Mr. Ketchen is 30 years of age, a graduate of Toronto University, and Knox College, and is engaged to be married to the daughter of a prominent London wholesale merchant. His stipend is $1,800 with a free manse.

FOR THE BREAKWATER.
The city is still purchasing ashes and earth for the breakwater at 16 cents a load. About 25 or 30 loads are received each day.

McCLARY OPENING.
Next Friday evening the McClary Company will entertain their employees in their new warehouse on Adelaide street, to signalize the opening of the same.

A RUNAWAY.
A horse attached to a buggy, owned by Mr. Adrian Zimmerman, while standing in front of his residence on Oxford street last night, took fright and ran away. The animal ran down Richmond street to York street, where it fell, and was captured. Horse and buggy were uninjured.

ADDRESS BY AN EXPERT.
Mr. T. Coo, president of the Ontario Short-hand and Business Academy yesterday on expert typewriting and the requirements of a stenographer. Mr. Coo is recognized as one of the expert typewriter demonstrators in the world, and was given the grand award for demonstrating typewriters at the World's Fair, St. Louis, and was also a typewriter career in this city in the office of W. C. Coo, the official court stenographer.

MISS CHALCRAFT'S FUNERAL.
Although it had been announced that Miss Francis Chalcraft's funeral yesterday would be private, there were a large number of friends and members of the family in attendance, while tokens of loving remembrance in the form of wreaths and various floral offerings were very numerous and exceedingly beautiful. Rev. T. T. Shields conducted the brief, impressive services at the residence and in the grave. The pallbearers included five young members of Adelaide Street Baptist Church and one from Talbot Street. The funeral was held at the residence, 374 Richmond street, where the remains were laid in Woodland Cemetery beside those of other members of the family.

EVANGELISTS AT EXETER.
The evangelistic services conducted by Rev. Mr. R. McNair, of Exeter, during the past month in the James Street Methodist Church, Exeter, were concluded on Tuesday last. The meetings were well attended, and a large number were converted, many of whom have already joined the church. Special services were held on Sunday school on Sunday afternoons, when a number of the scholars, old and young, went forward. On Tuesday afternoons, Mrs. McNair conducted special meetings for women and girls, which were well attended, and were very instructive and full of deep spiritual interest. Mrs. McNair is possessed of a sweet, clear, powerful voice and rendered many beautiful and pathetic hymns at the different meetings, among them being the beautiful hymn, "The Peasly Gates and Golden".

LAST MEETING OF THE SEASON.
The closing meeting for the season of the Art Culture Club, was by the invitation of the president, Rev. Canon Dann, held at St. Paul's rectory. Miss N. Taylor gave an excellent account of the life and patronage of the Italian artist, Perugino, showing very good copies of many of his most noted compositions. The musician Sinding was discussed by Miss Mabel Luscombe, in illustration of the music Miss Dann and Miss Patty McLean were to perform. The meeting was unanimously decided to donate the cash on hand, left over and above the running expenses of the club, to the Convalescent Home, and the same ($10) to Mrs. Boomer, president of that board, who graciously returned thanks for the helpful gift.

MRS. MURHEAD'S DEATH.
After a long illness, Mrs. Margaret Muirhead passed peacefully away at the family residence in her 86th year. She was the widow of the late David Muirhead, who was the senior partner of the milling firm of Muirhead & Gray. A kind and loving mother, she was missed from the home, and also by many friends. Deceased was a member of St. Andrew's Church, was born in Sterling, Scotland, and came to Canada with her parents when 18 years of age, settling on a farm on the Niagara frontier. After her marriage, she went to Dundas, where she lived for a number of years, and then came to London in 1867, where she resided continuously up to the time of her death. She is survived by a son and daughter, James Muirhead, of Fort William, and Mrs. Margaret Gray, who is still residing on the homestead, 416 Simcoe street.

DIED AT ADVANCED AGE.
The death of Mr. Lewis Sanagan, 121 York street, took place early this morning after a week's illness. He was in his 82nd year, and had spent the latter days of his life in this city. He was a native of Montreal, but had come to Western Ontario, settling in St. Thomas. Later he removed to a village of Delaware, where he was a resident for many years. He was well-known in the Township of Delaware and Carleton Place. The deceased had resided in this city during the past ten years, and had numerous friends here. His widow, four daughters and two sons, all of whom were called here this week, survive: Mrs. Robert Elsie, of this city; Mrs. William Houston, of Bennington; Mr. Frank Sanagan, of Toronto; Mrs. D. J. Sicklestiel, of Chicago; and Mrs. William Hudd, of South London. The late Mr. Sanagan also leaves two brothers and one sister. The funeral will probably take place to Lambeth on Monday.
