FRENCH TREATY

Member for North Oxford Carries on Budget Debate-Interim Supply Vote.

Ottawa, March 31.-After some de-relevant topics the House today passed the interim supply bill, covering appropriations amounting to $22,000,000. While the bill was under consideration in committee of ways and means Mr. Foster took occasion to throw cold water on the scheme to construct a subway between Toronto and the Island. He suggested that the Minister of Public Works was trying to misceded him in the office of chief secre- ing to an inquiry by the resident ennobly engaged in removing all possible ment, in his opinion, would not be juscauses of dispute between Great Bri- tified in aiding the project.
