BOBBIE HECK SHOWS HIS REAL FORM IN FINAL WITH HAMS

Holds Jack White's Club to Three Hits and One Run, While London Secures Six Hits and Three Runs Off Billy Donohoe.

TBY BERT PERRY.] Bobbie Heck, native of Syracuse, Nu Yawk, is around again after his recent attack of wildness. One week's rest and freedom from all pitching responsibility has apparently put the leading southpaw of the Canadian league back onto his winning streak, and he exhibited a fine lot of left handed spitballs and other slants before the astonished gaze of Jack White's Hamilton team on Saturday. The Hams were making their last attempt on the local premises, and judging from what Bobbie Heck did to them, they are just as well pleased that the schedule does not bring them within playing distance of this Reisling outfit again. The final score was 3 to 1 in favor of the said Reisling outfit.

A Featureless Game. It was a game of few features. There was not even an extra base hit to brighten up the two hours and five minutes taken to play the game. In fact, it was a game of few hits. The Hams could only garner three bingles off B. Heck, and the locals were not pounding D. Donohoe to any great extent. About the only thing that was Loticeably prominent was a fock of scrikeouts. Both teams had a number of these in their systems, and Donohoe managed to whiff nine of the league leaders, while Bobby Heck's curves forced eleven of the visitors to bite the dust through the strikeout method. London Starts the Scoring.

London took a one-run lead in the fourth inning. With one down, Cy Reidy took one of Donohoe's fast ones on his back and ambled down to first. Doc Reisling, who is playing second base again while Ray Whitcraft is tim to one of Donohoe's roundhouse and sent in to The Advertiser office in nursing his wrenched back, fell a viccurves and fanned. Jack Snyder, who the following letter is a good one, and Lt. Thomas has not been hitting in his usual form one which the London directors would lately, took a nice punch at the pill and do well to carry out: singled to right. It was the hit and from him in his hurry to field it Hams Even Up Count.

The Hams tied the score up in the sixth when Dudley took four balls and stole second. Gilhooley struck out, and Corns was thrown out by Bierbauer, Dudley moving to third on the play. McGroarty lined one out to Reidy, single to centre and Reisling drew a base on balls. Jack Snyder flew out to

An Easy Run.

In the seventh, another run was added to the London score. Bobby Heck tried to get out of the way of a wide ball, and it hit him on the pants. Eddie Linneborn laid down a sacrifice, and while Dunn was at bat, Donohoe made wild pitch which bit "Bed" made a wild pitch, which hit "Red" Fisher on the thumb. "Red" nursed made a wild pitch, which hit "Red" rursed his thumb instead of going after the ball, and Heck had no trouble whatever in scoring. It was an easy run. Fisher's thumb did not seem to bother him during the rest of the game, although nearly every member of the land of the seem of the same of the s though nearly every member of the Hamilton team came in and gave it the once over while "Red" was stamping around the plate after he had been hit.

There was really nothing to the game after that. London got two men on bases in the eighth, but nothing came of it. The Hams did not threaten after the sixth. of it. The Hams did not threaten after the sixth. In fact, they failed to get anything that resembled a hit after that inning. In the second and fifth innings they managed to put a couple of men on the sacks, but nice fielding by the London team helped the bear agent case. out of the hole in each case.

As we all know, any trouble. next week for three days, what about a fans' excursion for next Wednesday afternoon over the Pere Marquette or Traction Company lines. I would suggest taking along a band for the occasion, and as it is our team's first visit McGroarty fined one out to Reidy, and Dudley scored. McGroarty to St. Themas, I am sure a big crowd stole second a moment later, but was left. In London's half of the same inning, another run was scored, putting the locals one run to the good again. After Bierbauer had heaten out a hunt Lamy forced him. beaten out a bunt. Lamy forced him some over. It is not for the purpose of at second base. ### COULD A TEAM OF BIG MEN BEAT A NINE MADE CANADIAN PENNANT -UP OF LITTLE MEN? FULLARTON COMPARES THEM Won Lost Pct. 43 23 .652 [BY HUGH S. FULLERTON.]

Someone has revived the question whether big men or little men play the better baseball. The question is a good deal like the one discussed among players; whether nine Walter Johnsons could beat nine Ty Cobbs. But it is interesting. Let's select two teams. LITTLE TEAM. O'Nelli, Cleveland, Schalk, White Sox, catchers; Cicotte, White Sox, Fisk, Chicago Feds. pitchers: McInnis. 1b., Evers, 2b., Maranville, s.s., Maisel, 3b.,

Leach, Milan, Ehler, outfield. That team isn't the smallest possible to select, but it is quite a team and way below average size.

McLean, catcher; Main, Detroit; Davenport, Falkenberg, pitchers; Knight, 1b., Cutshaw, or Blackburn, 2b, Mc-Bride, s.s., Moriarity, 3b., Hofman, Col-Hns, Snodgrass, outfield.

BIG TEAM. Meyers, Henry, catchers; James, Reulbach, Hagerman, Vaughn, pitchers; J. Miller, 1b.: Lajoje, 2b.: Wagner, s.s.; Zimmerman, 3b.; Oldring, Campbell, Hyatt, outfield.

That doesn't decide much does it? One can pick a "little" team that probably would win, a tall team the same way, and the big team just as easily. Undoubtedly the style of ball players now runs to the strong, big fellows, especially in the pitching line. Four out of every five pitchers in the major leagues now are close to six feet and 200 pounds. Styles have changed wonderfully. The managers are after men with the weight the little men are not barred.

Look back over the lists; Anson, Delehanty, Young, Comiskey, Williamson, were giants of men. Anson wanted huge fellows with driving power behind them. On the other hand, Hugh Duffy London at St. Thomas; Teronte at Brantferd: was at his greatest at 140 pounds, Willie Erie at Hamilton; Ottawa at Peterboro. Keeler weighed about 135. McGraw was Keeler weighed about 135. McGraw was little man. Griffith, Cunningham, Radbourne. Billy Sullivan, scores of great W. L. P. C. players, were small. Pater (Tip) O'Neill weighed 98 pounds

> . 32 47 ,405 ers, who took a five-foot run and hurled the ball at him from 50 feet. Rusie was the fat, short-armed type, and so was Tom (Toad) Ramsey, Michels, Tacks, Parrott, Scissors Foutz were slim, lanky fellows. So it doesn't seem to make much difference. It is the spirit in the man, rather than the size that makes the ball

HOW TO STUDY. Examine the rebus picture and see how it will apply to a name. For example, the picture of a man lying on a couch can be interpreted as COUCHMAN, while a stone-worker on a building could be evolved as Mason.

OPEN TO ALL. Many ladies and children are diligently competing in the Summer Pastime. We opine that the fair sex and the younger element will be well represented among the winners of valuable cash prizes.

MONEY BACK OFFER. Get the Summer Pastime Handbook and if after receiving it you are not well satisfield, send it back at once and we will refund your quarter
