MANY OBJECTIONS TO "DAYLIGHT-SAVING" EXPRESSED LOCALLY

Workingmen Get Worst of It, Is Claim.

TRAVELERS HAVE KICK

Declare New Scheme Interfers With Schedules—Housekeepers Lose Out

To the question as to how he liked the daylight-saving scheme, the conductor on the rear end of the street car said:

"It's all right for you fellows who come down at 9 o'clock. But with the man who gets up at 5 or 6 o'clock ordinarily it is not a hit. If you were on my car on its first few trips down you would hear more grouching over the new scheme than over the Germans. Some simply will not get to work at the earlier hour, especially those who live a mile or more away from their work, and who have been used to rising at a certain hour for many years. Many of these men go to work on the new system for one or two days and then lay off the next day for an hour.

Hardship for Workingman.

"At one big plant in the east end there is much feeling at present over the scheme, and the men are about to refuse to work by it. I venture to say that if a vote were taken on the scheme that it would be buried so deep that it would never again be heard of. It is calculated to benefit one class and that class is not the man who works hard with his hands. It's a hardship with him, and before summer is over much objection will be registered against the scheme."

Travelers Complain, Too.

There are also many complaints from travelers, who declare that the new system has entirely destroyed their schedules, and cause delays and worries.

Housewives, particularly those whose husbands work on the railways, and there are many of these here, have to work on both times, and it is like watching a three-ring circus. They are not satisfied. Boarding-house keepers, with two "factions" of time-observers in the one house, get the worst of it.

The clerks in the stores say that the new schedule simply means that they lose an hour's sleep. Very few are common in the stores and shops.

However, conditions are better than they were last week, and it is expected that in a short time there will be fewer complaints.

It would be much better, it is claimed, if the scheme were universal. The railways would be forced to come in, and the results would be satisfactory.

"Hear the wail of a theft upon the answer four million dollars a day about the Titanic," shouted one of them. "I am getting tongue-tied trying to explain that the railways never change. Weary? That's my middle name."

Likens Firemen to Christ's Apostles

Rev. R. W. Norwood Pays Tribute to Them in Funeral Sermon.

Most impressive in its beauty was the service conducted by Rev. R. W. Norwood at the Crewys Memorial Church at the funeral of Capt. John Case of the fire department, yesterday afternoon. Mr. Norwood's address was eulogistic and he based his sermon on the word "Comrade" which he noted on one of the floral offerings, declaring that there is no word in the English language which is significant of greater honor, trust and respect than this word when used by one man to another. As an example he pointed out the camaradie of the Saviour and his apostles.

"Christ selected as his apostles men who had faced dangers daily, and who were accustomed to taking their lives in their hands in the execution of their daily tasks," said Mr. Norwood. "In many ways there are similarities between the lives of the firemen and the apostles; they both serve their fellows with their whole hearts. The apostles gave their lives when necessary for the work, and he is a man who never does not hesitate to risk losing his life if such risk should be necessary in the course of his duties.

"Among those who live amid such dangers the word 'comrade' takes on an added meaning. Men who are banded together and pass their lives never knowing when they must make the supreme sacrifice, feel more deeply toward each other. Truly 'comrade' is a glorious name."

Mr. Norwood commented on the absence of "cars of many mourners. "It is as it should be," he said, "for a life which is fully rounded on this world shall be continued in the Great Unknown. I shall not speak of the accident in which Capt. Case met his death," said Mr. Norwood. "On Sunday evening I voiced my opinion of it, and today I shall not allude to it."

Rev. Canon C. P. Quinn of Christ Church read the lesson and Rev. W. J. Doherty, both close friends of Capt. Case, read the Ninetieth Psalm.

The band of the 142nd Battalion played the "Dead March" on the way to Woodland Cemetery, where interment was made.

PREPARE FOR YARNS

London Elks Will Fish in Mysterious Waters on July 5. So Watch Out.

London Lodge, No. 55, Elks, is planning an automobile fishing party to an unknown point on Lake Huron for Wednesday, July 5. George S. Gibbons proposed the party, and promised that the particular fishing hole to which he would guide the members will be productive of some fish. It is expected that fifty or sixty members will go along. The lodge is also planning a down town luncheon in the near future.

CITY BREVITIES

WAS IT JUSTIFIED?—In view of the weather today, the followers of old-time adage and precept are full-fledged members of the "I-Told-You-So" Club. They declare that the prediction that the three-months' rain would terminate yesterday has been justified.

BELGIAN RELIEF.—Mrs. H. A. Bonnett gratefully acknowledges the receipt of $25 from the Farmers' Syndicate from the Belgian relief fund. This is one of several generous contributions from the company to the Dollar Chain Fund organized at the beginning of the war for patriotic purposes of all natures.

ALL IS QUIET.—The past two days have been days of rest and relaxation for Police Magistrate J. C. Judd, who has had very light dockets to deal with. Yesterday one drunk was discharged, and an Indian lister fined $10 or 21 days. Today the same fine was imposed on another lister, and two drunks were allowed to go.

PUPILS' RECITAL.—Violin pupils of Miss Dewey, assisted by piano pupils of Miss Brock, gave a recital at Conservatory Hall last evening before a large audience of friends of the students. Two exceptionally interesting numbers in ensemble playing were the "Minuet," by Haydn, for four performers, and the "Wedding March of the Peasants," by Merkenthaler, for eight performers. The following were the violin students who took part: Misses Stephanie Silverman, Lillian Pearson, Della Packham, Freda Gartner, Margaret Lettigo, Alice Lucas and Walter Bennet, all of whom acquitted themselves most creditably. The piano numbers of Miss Norma Dickson and Master Jack Wilkey were very much enjoyed. Miss Brock acted as accompanist.

DELEGATES FINISH DELIBERATIONS OF C. O. F. CONVENTION

Wind Up Meeting at Morning Session.

AMENDMENTS ARE PASSED

Important Change in Sick Benefit Arrangements Is Ordered.

The Canadian Order of Foresters in session within Richmond Street Methodist Church, London, yesterday, transacted a large amount of business in connection with the constitution as it relates to sickness and to the effect that in case of a member becoming ill the financial secretary of the subordinate court, or the court to which the member taken ill belongs, must immediately notify the high secretary of the high court.

From the postoffice date stamp, of this letter the allowances for sick benefits will be made.

The second amendment made, but not considered of such importance as the first benefit amendment, was one giving the executive committee power to appoint officers, pro tem, between sessions in case a vacancy should occur, necessitating said appointment, which the executive committee of the high court of the C. O. F. otherwise does, the delegates fearing for their homes this afternoon.

The officers installed were:

High Chief Ranger—J. A. Stewart, Perth.

High Vice-Chief Ranger—J. A. A. Pelletier, Montreal.

High Secretary — Robert Mitchell, Brantford.

High Treasurer—A. H. Gullen, London.

High Auditor—W. L. Roberts and [illegible].

High Physician—W. M. Crossey, Markham.

High Chaplain—Rev. J. W. West, Port Perry.

Executive Committee—P. H. Bassett, Wallaceburg; A. R. Gullin, Perth; A. J. Stevenson, Brantford; E. Hart, Toronto; J. Mills, Hanover.

WATCHING VOTES CLOSELY

Trades and Labor Council Checks Up Aldermanic Ballots.

The trades and labor council is closely following the trend of local politics. The vote cast for the statement made by Tregarthen Leaden at the meeting last night, setting forth the fact that the aldermen unofficially voted on the question of increasing the salary of the city engineer. The question has caused a great deal of interest, and the ballots cannot be given out to a union shop.

NO DIFFICULTY HERE

G. T. R. Freight Agent Expects No Effect of Bridgeburg Strike.

"No connection of federal or provincial government will be experienced in carrying freight as usual," said D. W. Pierce, freight agent of the Grand Trunk, when asked as to the effect the strike of the strikers of Bridgeburg of freight clerks and checkers would have. "Our staff of clerks here is sufficient, and there is no reason why strike conditions should exist here. We are prepared to handle the freight as usual."

BLAKE—FRENCH.

A very pretty "after-Easter" wedding took place Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick G. French, 91 Ann street, when their only daughter, Winnifred Evelyn, was married to William E. Blake of Montreal formerly of this city.

The bride was charming in her travelling suit of blue serge, with hat to match, and was given away by her father. Mr. and Mrs. Blake left on the evening train for their future home in Montreal.

CONVENTION CLOSES WITH ELECTION OF OFFICERS FOR YEAR

The Sanitary and Heating Engineers Leave for Homes.

MISSION FOR LONDONERS

Local Society To Look After Legislation Touching the Work.

The 37th annual convention of the Canadian Society of Domestic, Sanitary and Heating Engineers came to a close at noon today, following the election and installation of officers for the coming year.

Montreal was selected for the society's 38th annual convention.

Officers Elected.

The following officers were elected for the coming year:

President—A. Charette, Montreal.

Vice-President—C. R. Myers, Stratford.

Secretary-Treasurer—L. J. Conroy, Montreal.

Provincial Vice-Presidents — Quebec, Joseph Laurier, Montreal; Ontario, C. H. Rutherford, Toronto; New Brunswick, W. G. Crawford, St. John; Nova Scotia, J. E. Glendenning, Halifax; Prince Edward Island, D. R. H. Shaw, Charlottetown; Manitoba, J. Mackie, Winnipeg; Saskatchewan, N. B. Boothroe, Swift Current; Alberta, James Mary, Calgary; British Columbia, J. A. Anderson, Vancouver.

Chairmen of Committees—Sanitary committee, Angus McDonald, Strathroy; heating and ventilating, R. J. McCarty, Montreal; legislature, A. Archambault, Hull; Quebec gazaty, Geo. S. Dennis, Moncton, N. B.; apprenticeship, Jas. Watson, Toronto.

After settling the officers elected in their respective places, the convention came down to a close.

London's Mission.

A resolution was adopted prior to the election of officers to the effect that the London society would constitute itself a standing body to look in matters with the Dominion Government with reference to legislation affecting the trade.

This Lon. head society agrees to cheerfully undertake, and will do its utmost in the power to bring progress to bear on the Government with respect to matters that may be in any way beneficial to its work.

At 11 o'clock the delegates in attendance paid a visit to the London Asylum, Verna, and by courtesy of the management were taken over the entire plant.

A drive was then taken through the residential sections of the city, the delegates being entertained at luncheon at 1 o'clock. This afternoon the delegates left for their homes.

A Banquet.

Last night a banquet was held at the Dominion Hotel, the guests of the evening being the executive of the Canadian Army and Navy Veterans' Association.

Lieut.-Colonel Hodgetts, M.P., was toastmaster. "The Army and Navy," proposed by Benjamin Stelle, was responded to by Major Taylor of Guelph, who in a patriotic speech outlined the duties of the army, and called particular attention to the navy and its great work.

Toast to City.

"The City of London" was responded to by K. B. Gaskell of Toronto, in a speech in which he extended on behalf of the association a hearty vote of thanks to the citizens of London for the splendid manner in which they had entertained the delegates. London in the south, he said, was far ahead of Toronto in civic spirit. Cheers for the Forest City followed.

Action Mayor T. J. Dyer responded on behalf of the city, and in a brief address extended the freedom of the city to the visiting delegates.

Peter McArthur.

Peter McArthur spoke in humorous vein, dealing with several phases pertaining to the war and all of employes engaged upon sanitary conditions, and Mr. McArthur said he believed that had Rome, Athens and other ancient cities had better sanitary conditions in those times history might have been different.

Suggesting a solution for the ending of the war, Mr. McArthur said, "Have all the plumbing shops turned into shell-manufacturing plants, and then notify the Kaiser that all the guns, etc., bills would be sent to him, and the war would soon cease."

Some Other Toasts.

Other toasts responded to briefly, dealing on the interests of the body, were:

"The Canadian Society"—Proposed by E. Hallett, president of the Toronto branch; response by E. H. Russell, president of the William Mansell Toronto Manufacturers and Senator Hanna—Proposed by Frank Maxwell, Toronto; response by Frank Mitchell (Toronto), Thomas Adcock (Toronto), J. R. McNichol (Toronto), and Chester Stevens (London).

Strike Peace—Proposed by C. F. Needham, responded by W. H. Newsome, Toronto.

"The Ladies"—Proposed by H. Abel; responded by F. Schneider, Galt.

Song—"Auld Lang Syne."

Sports at Springbank.

The afternoon of yesterday was spent at Springbank, where a program of sports was run off that showed the members to be athletes of more than the usual ability.

The most exciting feature of the afternoon was the ball game between the employees and manufacturers that resulted 14 to 12 in favor of the employees.

Many novel features not usually witnessed in professional ball were introduced by the players and base-running and base-stealing that would put Ty Cobb's stunts in the shade were pulled off every few minutes. The other events resulted as follows:

Race for master plumbers—1, R. A. Bell, Waterloo; 2, George Gringer, Guelph.

Race for manufacturers and jobbers—1, W. E. West, Toronto; 2, William Downs, Toronto.

Three-legged race—1, F. Quinn and W. Downs, Toronto; 2, R. T. Needham and J. J. Cornelius, Guelph.

Fat men's race—1, Bert McLaren, Guelph.

Second race for men over 50 years—1, Fitzhill; 2, Saunders, London; 3, Ald. Squire, Toronto.

Married ladies' race—1, Mrs. Gerrard, Toronto; 2, Mrs. Harrison, Toronto; 3, Mrs. Hughes, Toronto.

Shoe and stocking race—1, W. S. Fenwick, London; 2, E. M. Morris, Hamilton.

Standing flat jump — A. D. McArthur, 9 ft. 6 in.

High Jump—W. W. Taylor.

Hop, step and jump—W. Sage.

Special event—1, A. Bell, Waterloo; 2, Ben Noble.

UNABLE TO DECIDE HOW TO CELEBRATE LABOR DAY HERE

Some Favor Picnic to Springbank, Others a Parade.

CALL SPECIAL MEETING

Trades Council Will Help Returned Soldiers to Find Work.

That there will be a demonstration in London on Labor Day this year is certain. What form this demonstration will take is what is bothering the trades and labor council at the present time. At their meeting last evening the members had a long discussion on the matter without arriving at any definite conclusion as to how they will pass Labor Day, and a special meeting of the council will be called for July 1, when the matter will be definitely decided.

Several of the delegates stated last evening that their locals were not in favor of holding a parade this year on account of the strain through which the country is passing. Others declared that as fully two-thirds of the London men of this district have enlisted and are serving their country, that the union need not hesitate to show itself in a parade through the streets. It was proposed that if there should be a parade held that each local should carry a banner, showing how many of its members had enlisted.

Favor a Picnic.

A few members were in favor of holding a big picnic at Gibbons Park, or Springbank to replace the usual parade. President Hunter declared himself to be in favor of holding a picnic as usual.

The council received an invitation to send President James Duncan to Washington, D.C., to attend the dedication of the new temple of the American Federation of Labor on July 4. When an address will be given by President Woodrow Wilson. The council decided that it would do better to reserve its funds to send its president to Canadian labor meetings rather than to the American ones.

To Aid Soldiers.

Delegate Wallace brought up the question of assisting the returned soldiers, who were looking for employment, and it is probable that the council will get in touch with the newly-formed Returned Soldiers' Association and endeavor to co-operate with them in securing positions for such of them as are able to work.

A letter of condolence will be sent to Mrs. Clarke, mother-in-law of the late Capt. John Clarke.

Delegates to the Sarnia convention were appointed, the same to be held on the first Monday in August, being Civic Holiday.

LONDON MEN'S NOT IN LATE CASUALTY LISTS

Two From Here Killed in Action, With Many Who Trained in City Wounded.

London has been kept free from the casualty lists, but the list published from Ottawa this morning appears on the name of Pte. Charette, signed as a member of the 1st battalion, and reported killed in action on June 13.

Mrs. Florence Robert, 210 Paul Mall street, has officially notified this morning that Pte. Thomas F. Robert, belonging to the 1st battalion, and who had been admitted to Wilhelmina Hospital on June 11 with pneumonia, had died in the Canadian hospital in France.

Pte. Hepburn, a Scotch member of the 1st battalion that trained in London for a time, was reported killed in action in the casualty list of last night. The name of his relative in Scotland is not known.

Pte. John Morrison, member of the same battalion, also trained here, who enlisted in Windsor, was also listed in the "killed in action" list.

In the wounded list were four other members of the same unit. They were Pte. Samuel Cuthbertson, St. Thomas; Harry Hayward, Sarnia; Jacob J. Stenger, Galt; Edmund Wellard, Sarnia. In every case the next of kin of the four wounded privates is given as residing in the old country.
