

LONDON, ONT., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 21, 1925.

Four generations. The above group shows Mrs. Duncan Anderson, 83 years of age, who read the first copy of the London Advertiser. She is a staunch Liberal. John H. Anderson, her son, a well known citizen of London, Mrs. Leonard Edwards and two year old son, Lawrence Anderson Edwards

P. W. Bice, supreme sheriff of Thebes Sanctorum O. O. H. P. of London. Mr. Bice is the first supreme officer ever appointed in London

R. R. Whitehead, district deputy supreme Monarchas of Western Ontario, and grand hyastatee Thebes, No. 26 Sanctorum O. O. H. P. of London

Edna, charming daughter of Alderman and Mrs. C. M. Linnell, Oxford street, London
-Photo by Sanders Studio.

Not a care in the world. Donald, the ten months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Keene, 761 Richmond street, London

Bobbie Etheld, junior, three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Etheld Harris, Birr, Ont. Bobbie is one of the most popular youngsters in his neighborhood which may be accounted for by his constant good nature

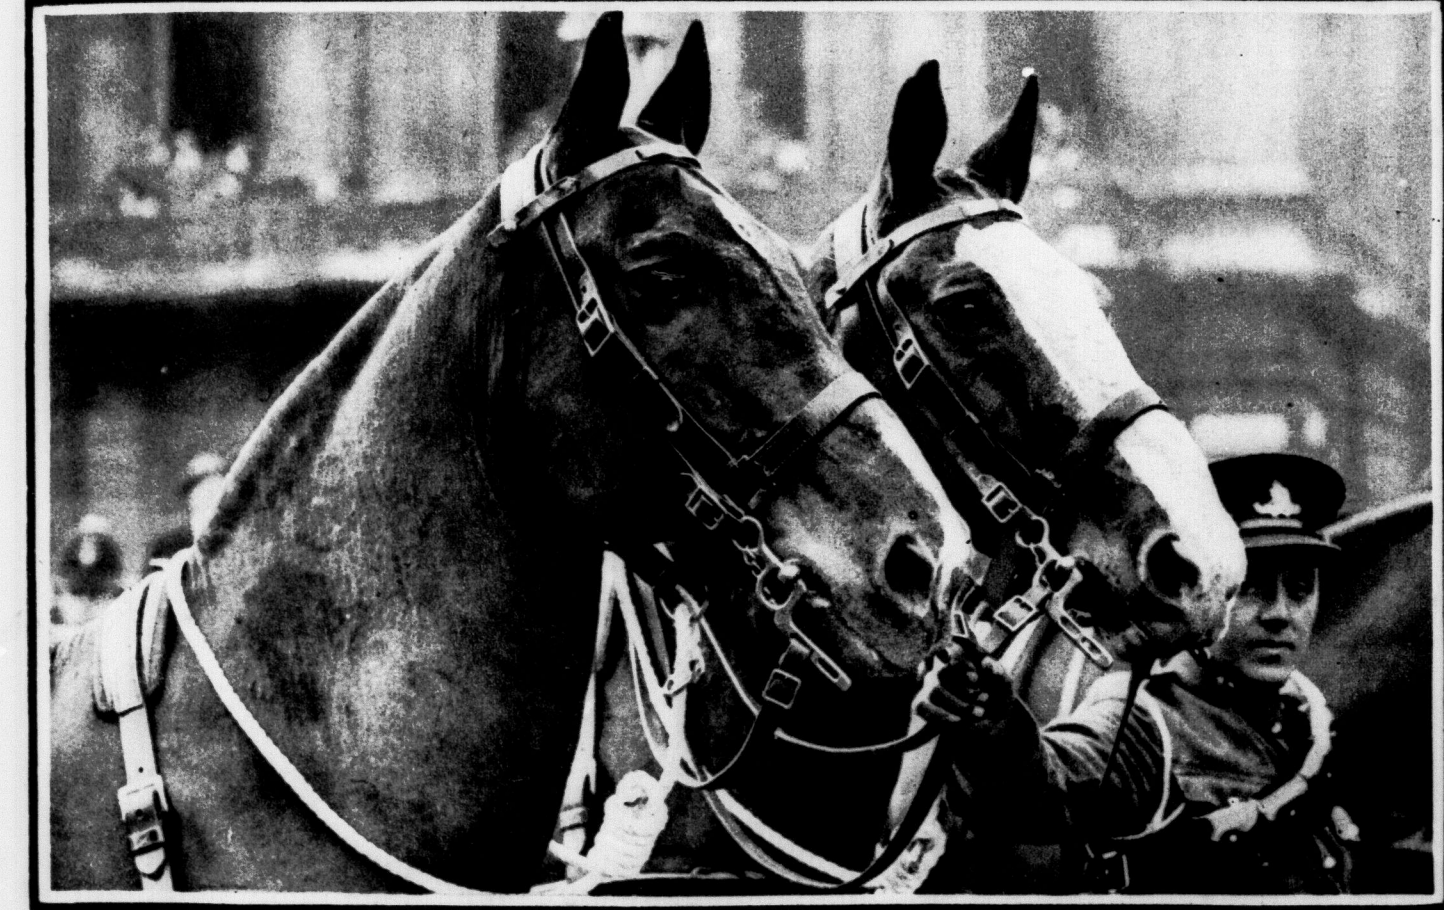

Wesley and Rex, inseparable pals. This picture shows Wesley, the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Hams of Toronto, Ont., with Rex, his best friend. Taken at the home of Mr. James Swan, Brucefield

Ruth Creighton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Creighton of Listowel, Ont. Ruth is just as good natured as she looks
-Photo by Russell Listowel

The problem of rising perpendicularly and hovering like a bird seems to have been solved by this Cinerva plane being tested at Farnborough, England

These horses which had a place of honor at the unveiling of the Royal Artillery memorial in London, England, went to France with the original British army and served throughout the war

Marion Sheill, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. G. Sheill of Listowel, and her faithful dog "Watch"
-Photo by Russell Listowel

"Tommie", the eleven months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Tom O'Hey, 850 King street, London