Proceedings in The Telford Case

Matter Investigated by a Committee of College of Physicians. Session Adjourned and a Decision Probable in a Fort-night's Time.

(From Friday's Daily.) Following is the Newscaster's report of the Dr. Telford trial, which was briefly reported by wire in yesterday's issue.

Mr. Joseph Martin, K.C., made things lively at the meeting of the committee of inquiry into charges against Dr. Robert Telford, which was held yesterday morning in O'Brien's hall. In the first place, he read the evidence as to the considerable time to ascertain who had made the charge against Dr. Telford.

The committee was appointed by the College of Physicians and Surgeons of British Columbia, and consisted of Dr. A. P. Proctor, of Kamloops, who was in the chair; Dr. J. C. White, of Victoria; and Dr. Walker, of New Westminster. The evidence placed before this committee was that of the medical council, consisting of Drs. Davis, Jones and Egan, of the medical council, and Dr. Egan, of Vancouver; Dr. Proctor, of Kamloops; and Dr. Walker, of New Westminster.

Dr. Telford, against whom charges of infamously and unprofessional conduct have been preferred, was present in the case, which is still in the minds of the public, was present and was represented by Mr. Joseph Martin, K.C., who has acted as his counsel from the first. The medical council was represented by Mr. J. C. White, K.C., who has acted as their counsel from the first.

Mr. Martin's first query, when the session was opened, was as to whom the inquiry had been made, and the reply was given by the chairman that the formal complaint had been made to the council having acted on its own initiative in the matter.

Mr. Martin asked, but Mr. McPhillips advised that this question need not be answered. "I want it," Mr. Martin demanded, "so that a judge may know that the matter is bona fide."

Persistence in his request elicited the remark from Dr. Walker that the only thing to do was to follow the law on and talk until he was tired, and then the inquiry would begin.

Mr. Martin asked, but Mr. McPhillips advised that this question need not be answered. "I want it," Mr. Martin demanded, "so that a judge may know that the matter is bona fide."
