

FOR FRIDAY MANY SPECIAL LINES

If the coming Sunday is anything like last Sunday was, you will probably want a number of new things to feel perfectly comfortable. Among our new Spring arrivals we have many special lines that are values somewhat better than usual. By taking advantage of the opportunities these specials offer, you can save—and a dollar saved is a dollar earned. We call particular attention to our opening display of footwear, today being the second day of the showing.

SPENCER'S BIG SPRING SHOE EXHIBIT — THE SECOND DAY'S SHOWING

An important item in the Spring outfit is Shoes. This was evidenced by the large number of admiring and critical patrons who visited our Shoe Department yesterday. The consensus of opinion is that our Spring Shoe exhibit excels anything ever shown before on this coast. In making our selection, care was taken to choose lines, which while particularly adapted for local wear are still strictly correct. In fact, the latest fashions right up to the minute. We cordially invite your inspection. In our yesterday's Ad we specially mentioned our higher priced lines. Today we call your attention to a few medium priced lines of good, sound, serviceable Footwear. While prices are low, value standard is high, and styles good.

BRITAIN'S PANIC OVER ITS NA

Rapid Construction of Ge Dreadnoughts Cause Much Fear

PRESSURE ON MINIS

Public Meetings to Be Throughout Country More Battleships

London, March 20.—The dramatic confession of the cabinet minister the recent debate in the House of Commons that Great Britain has stolen a march on this try by so expediting the construction of Dreadnoughts that Great Britain will have little if any margin number of new battleships in 1909 has been followed by something a panic throughout the United Kingdom. Even the so-called "Week" during the Boer war furnished a precedent to the present, and there is no doubt that Premier Asquith at this time the nation a chance to voice its opinion at the polls on the situation with the supremacy of the British threatened, there would be little of the present Radical party Commons.

The direct vote of censure which J. Balfour, leader of the opposition will bring the issue whether four or eight Dreadnoughts should be definitely included in the year's naval programme, before parliament, although there is a chance that the national outcry caused Premier Asquith to yield give definite assurance that phantom Dreadnoughts will be down this year, in addition to the provided for in the estimates, promise all the adherents of a big navy, and they have planned a campaign over the length and breadth of the country in support of it.

The navy league, which present particular party, is in the front movement. At an emergency meeting today, when Lord Elich, president of the league decided to enter immediately upon "a great campaign to arouse people to the urgency and gravity of the problem confronting the nation."

There is no necessity for any action for this direction in the big navy, but the big league is arranging meetings at every market place, more remote corners of towns and villages. This movement has the port of the most influential people of the country, and plenty of funds promised.

The league insists that the minimum of Dreadnoughts in 1909-10 must be eight, claiming that nothing less suffice to maintain Great Britain's naval supremacy. The newspaper ever since Tuesday's debate have filled with lurid pictures of the German. Every retired admiral in the Kingdom has been utilizing the forgotten breezy language of quarter deck in condemning blundering lords of the admiralty.

A great meeting of the business of London is being arranged by Lord Mayor to be held in the Mansion House, and the chambers of some in the provinces are not a whit behind in their demands that the "little policy" shall be buried beyond the of resurrection and that immediate steps shall be taken to deal with national crisis."
