JUDGEMENT GIVEN IN TITANIC CASE

Court Found Vessel Was Driven at Excessive Speed.

WATCH WAS NOT KEPT.

London July 30.—The judgment of the British Board of Trade court of inquiry into the disaster to the White Star liner Titanic, which sank in mid ocean with 1,517 souls, after collision with an iceberg on April 14, was pronounced today by Lord Mersey, the presiding judge, before a large audience. The court finds that the collision of the Titanic with the iceberg was due to the excessive speed at which the ship was navigated; that a proper watch was not kept; that the ship's boats were properly lowered, but that arrangements for manning them were insufficient; that the Leyland liner Californian might have reached the Titanic if she had attempted to do so; that the track followed was reasonably safe, with proper vigilance, and that there was no discrimination against third-class passengers in the saving of life.

The court of inquiry, exonerates J. Bruce Ismay, chairman and managing director of the White Star Line, and Sir Cosmo Duff-Gordon, one of the passengers, from any charges of improper conduct. The judgment recommends more watertight compartments in sea going ships, the provision of lifeboats for all on board, and more efficient drill of the crew as well as a better lookout.

Lord Mersey's judgment is a formal legal document, giving the history of the voyage and of the disaster while the findings and recommendations of the court extend to great length. Much of the judgment is highly technical for which Lord Mersey's scientific colleagues are responsible.

While the judgment was being delivered, no attempt at rhetoric was made. There was no argument and no direct reference to the inquiry by the committee of the United States Senate, under the chairmanship of Senator William Alden Smith.

The most important findings of the court were that the Titanic was sufficient and efficiently officered and manned, and complied with all the regulations of the British merchant shipping act, regarding safety, but that the arrangements for manning and launching the lifeboats in an emergency were insufficient and that no drill had been held. The instructions for the voyage given prior to sailing were in the opinion of the court, adequate, but "having regard to subsequent events, they would have been better if reference had been made to the course to be adopted in the event of the vessel reaching the region of ice."

The outward and homeward southern tracks were according to judgment reasonably safe for the time of year, at which the disaster happened, provided great precautions were used in crossing the ice region.

Capt. E. S. Smith, of the Titanic, was not, said the court, fettered by orders to remain in the track, but naturally would keep near to the accepted route. In view of the fact that on the night of the accident the moon was not shining, there was no wind and very little swell on the sea, and especially in view of the high speed at which the Titanic was steaming, an extra lookout should, in the court's opinion, have been placed in the stem of the boat, and a sharp watch kept by the officers on both sides of the bridge.

The judgment did not consider binoculars necessary as a rule. "Searchlights, however, might be serviceable, but the evidence given before the court was insufficient to permit of a precise answer."

The speed of 23 knots was regarded by the court as excessive.

The seriousness of the disaster was realized by the officers within fifteen or twenty minutes of the crash and proper discipline had been maintained, according to the view of the court.

SCHOONER ASHORE ON PRESTON BEECH

Liability to be Total Loss-Cargo May be Saved.

Monday night about one o'clock the schooner James Ryan bound from Campbellton to Prince Edward Island went ashore at Preston Beech. There had been a strong north west wind all day which as night came on changed to north east. The intense fog prevented the lights on shore from being seen and when the captain thought he was in safe water his schooner struck. The crew of four men and the captain's little boy reached the shore safely about five o'clock Monday morning. The captain was in Chatham on Tuesday and went down river this morning to see if the cargo of shingles and posts could be saved. The schooner will likely be a total loss and there is no insurance on either cargo or vessel.

CHAMPION RETIRES

Chicago, July 30.—Jack Johnson, champion heavyweight pugilist of the world, announces that he has fought his last fight. "The promoters won't give me my price for fighting now, and if I wait a year I'll probably not be in a condition to put up a fight worthy of a champion. So its good-bye to John Arthur Johnson, champion of the world," he said.

Asked if he intended to retire in favor of any fighter, as Jeffries did, in the case of Marvin Hart, Johnson said:

"No, let Jeanette, Langford and McVey fight it out. I think McVey will thrash any of them, but that is their trouble, not mine. No white fighter can give either of these men a good battle."

Johnson has saved his money. He said tonight he was worth $200,000, the greater part of which is well invested. Practically all of this has been made since he fought Tommy Burns in Australia, December 26 1908.

Claims Title for Jeanette

Chicago, July 30.—Johnson's announcement produced a quick response from John McKettrick, manager for Joe Jeanette. "I am not seeking to establish a precedent," he said, "but I sincerely believe I am justified in claiming the world's heavyweight title for Joe Jeanette."

THE BLESSING OF MOTHERHOOD

Healthy Mothers and Children Make Happy Homes

Motherhood is woman's highest sphere in life. It is the fruition of her dearest hopes and greatest desires; yet thousands of noble women through some derangement have been denied this blessing. In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong. This is evidenced by the following letters which are genuine and truthful:

London, Ont.—"I wish to thank you for the benefit I received by taking your famous medicine, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Before my baby was born I was so ill I could not stand long or walk any distance. I had to lie down nearly all the time. After I took your medicine I felt like a new woman. I could work from morning till night and was happy and well. I certainly think it relieves pain at childbirth and recommend it to every woman who is pregnant. You may use this testimonial if you like. It may help some other woman."—Mrs. FRANK CORBIN, 132 Adelaide St., London, Ont.

Brooklyn, N. Y.—"I was ailing all the time and did not know what the matter was. I wanted a baby but my health would not permit it. I was nervous, my side ached and I was all run down. I heard that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was good and took the medicine. I have now a beautiful baby and your Compound has helped me in every way."—Mrs. J. J. STEWART, 290 Humboldt St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

Three gentlemen by the name of Stewart will occupy seats in the new Legislature, and strange to say all come from the north shore. They are Commodore Stewart, of Northumberland A. J. H. Stewart, of Gloucester, and David Stewart, of Restigouche. One of the trio in discussing the incident with The Mail says that he is unable to find from the records where one of the name ever previously occupied a seat in the Legislature. The Stewarts mentioned above are not related, although they spell their names alike.—Mail.

LONDON'S CADETS COMING
