

WICKED AND WONDERFUL.

ANOTHER INTERESTING LETTER FROM THE CITY OF CHICAGO.

"Our Carter" the Chief Magistrate—His Welcome Home—A Demoralized Elite—Prof. Swing—The Exposition.

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—I don't know that Chicago is the most wonderful city upon the face of the earth it's time you did, for you have been told so often enough. I think there is more blow and brag to the square inch about Chicago than to the acre of any other city of the union. Of course most of the blowing is done by modest Chicagoans. And if you come to visit this city you don't manifest a general brokenness of amazement at all you see, you will not be thought to amount to much. No doubt.

CHICAGO IS A VERY WONDERFUL CITY—wonderful for its sly streets, for its numerous bridges spanning the multitudinous rivers, for its smoky atmosphere that often reminds one of the iron districts of the north of England, and for a thousand other very undesirable elements. But we have wonders of another kind altogether. And it is not too much to say that we have the most wonderful mayor in the world. Carter H. Harrison, the chief magistrate of Chicago, is quite a curiosity in his way. Of course all mayors are expected to be great. They are always the embodiment of magisterial authority and civic dignity. They are always selected by the best and wisest portion of the constituency for the purest and noblest reasons. So it is always in Toronto, and so also in Chicago.

THE MAYOR OF CHICAGO is called, in a portly gentleman of some sixty years of age with a good strong dash of the Sir John A. mentality about him, and self-complacency enough for the president of the United States and the governor-general of Canada. He is a goodly specimen of a very wicked people that if the Almighty thinks half as much of Carter Harrison as Carter Harrison does of himself he'll be very near the throne by and by. "Carter" has set before himself a high mark, he means to be the "best mayor Chicago ever had," and truth to tell he has managed to make himself beyond all question the most popular man of this great city. He has the very largely developed, and is one of the really platform speakers we have; and that is saying a good deal for what Chicago endures from is not a lack of speakers, but a great dearth of hearers. In most audiences two thirds of the people—indeed, in many, the whole—go to the motion and the rest are quite willing to move an armchair. But our worthy mayor is nothing if he is not a platform speaker. He is one of those speakers who can be all things to all men—and have flows not more freely from the lips of Emma or Virginia than from "our Carter's" city tongue. He is constant requester at all national gatherings. And with Germany, Sweden or Scandinavia he is equal at home. He is the pet of the school-keepers, and the gamblers swear by him, though he has the reputation of having

CHIEF MAGISTRATE IN CHICAGO. I heard the mayor howl diabolical hoarse at a meeting called by demagogue Gladstone for arresting Parrot. He roared and foamed and all but swore at the bloody Saxon tyrant. I saw him at the funeral services conducted by the Reverend Father of Garibaldi, how his majestic head and try all he knew to jerk six or seven times in loving memory of the hero of Capri. As it was falling, "Carter" would not bow. I tell you our mayor is a man of most versatile genius. The newspapers have done their best to make a man of himself that thing that can be said or printed against him disturbs him for a moment. He has recently paid a visit to the city of Toronto to see a well-earned rest—for truth to tell he is a very hard working man. He however was on marriage bent, and the surprise of his friends is his most intimate friends, Mr. Harrison

TOOK TO HIMSELF A BRIDE IN LONDON. His tour was little more than a triumphal procession, and in Dublin he was honored with a banquet called by the lord mayor of Ireland's capital. This banquet was no doubt a very grand affair, and the enthusiastic sympathy Chicago always shows for Ireland in her sorrows. And our worthy mayor was the most notable man. It was a great occasion and "our Carter" magnified his office. On his return home the mayor, was made the subject of a most enthusiastic welcome. Tuesday evening saw Chicago en fête. There must have been from a hundred and fifty to two hundred thousand people in the streets. The evening was exceedingly fine, and Julius Cesar could hardly have expected a grander occasion to be returned from his triumphant exploits. There were brass bands by scores, and what was lacking in banding was made up in fireworks. The crowd was good-humored; the unfortunate policemen were made the victims of most unflattering gibes, the mounted police forming a most excellent

TARGET FOR "THE BOYS." Those who had provided themselves with a good store of small apples for the occasion. The mayor was heralded by a salute of thirteen guns. His carriage was drawn by six gallant steeds. In his carriage was an eagle. But such an eagle! I thought of the days gone by, how I recited that sweet poem: "Boy, my eagle's flight over the hills." But such a bodacious crest-fallen demoralized eagle I never saw. I thought the eagle had a habit of soaring upward and with unblended vision, but this eagle's head was more visible than near about it, and it didn't seem capable of a solitary scream! There is something like philosophy in that if ever I am drawn through a procession I shall bargain for

A WIFE'S EAGLE. A WIFE'S EAGLE. He feels so good that he thinks he wouldn't give up the majority of Chicago to be United States senator if he was offered to him. PROFESSOR DAVID SWING. From the ridiculous to the sublime is but one step backward or forward. The many friends of Professor Swing have greatly regretted his prolonged absence. The professor left Chicago early in July in a very feeble state of health. He has been wandering through Europe in search of health. His recovery has been very tedious, but he is expected to be in his place at Central music hall on Monday morning next. He will be greeted with a hearty welcome by the thousands who gather round his ministry. It will be careful to represent you there.

THE CHICAGO EXPOSITION. The exposition is in full blast. The streets adjacent to the exposition buildings are crowded with country country. The managers are high gleed at the assured success of this year's show, and the tradespeople generally are reaping a pretty good harvest. I intend to stroll through and will give you an account of what I see. ELMO.

READABLE PARAGRAPHS.

Nervous Neuralgia, of no matter how long standing or how severe, will readily yield to the curative power of Dr. E. C. West's Nerve and Brain Treatment.

A beautiful range of fall scarfs at 50c, good value at 75c. A line of fine Gaiters, suitable for office wear, not too heavy, cut superior to anything shown in Toronto, at a very moderate price, also a line of very heavy Gaiters at reasonable figures. See them and you will buy. A. White, King Street West.

It Never Fails. Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is an unfailing remedy for all kinds of bowel complaint.

"Did you see the moon over your right shoulder, my dear?" said she to him as they rambled down the walk. "N—n—o," not exactly, but I just saw the old man over my left and I'll bid you good night." No kisses were served up at that parting.

The best way to repair strength and increase the bodily substance is to invigorate the stomach and improve the circulation with Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure. Simultaneous with the disappearance of indigestion it relieves that morbid despondency and the nervousness which are as much the product of dyspepsia as the weakness of the stomach and loss of vigor and flesh which proceed from it; and a blood purifier it has no equal.

A Matchless Medicine. The cooling, cleansing, soothing and healing properties of Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry render it the best remedy in the world for all forms of bowel complaints, sickness of the stomach, cramps, cholera morbus and dysentery. Purely vegetable, and always reliable.

San hats and parasols are trimmed to match with Nancy embroidery and worn with frou-frou dresses similarly trimmed. This is opened needwork laid over colored silk to display the design. Mrs. A. Nelson, Bradford, writes: "I was a sufferer from chronic dyspepsia for eleven years. Always after eating, an intense burning sensation in the stomach, at times very distressing, caused a drooping and languid feeling, which would last for several hours after eating. I was recommended by Mr. Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic Cure, and I am thankful to say that I have not been better for years; that burning sensation and languid feeling has all gone, and food does not lie heavy on my stomach. Others of my family have used it with best results."

Get the Best. Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is the best, most prompt and safest cure for cholera morbus, dysentery, sick headache, cramps, colic and cholera infantum that has yet been discovered. Its popularity is evidenced by the fact that all medicine dealers sell it.

The man who addresses his wife as "dear," "ducky" and "darling" in the presence of others, usually "de" and "dar" and down date when they are alone.

The kerose oil of the United States for the last twenty years has been worth a billion and a half of dollars.

Mr. J. Leist, warehouseman for Lutz Bros., Buffalo, N. Y., says he had a welling on the foot which he attributed to chilblains. He used Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, and it troubled no longer.

"The Leaves shall be for the Healing of the Nations." The leaf of the Wild Strawberry has verified that scriptural quotation. Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is a method of healing in all varieties of summer complaints, and fluxes, cholera morbus, cholera infantum and every form of bowel complaint of children or adults promptly yields to its power of healing.

Takes a woman for ingenuously. A Cleveland girl who had a new bonnet she wanted to show contrived to get herself called as a witness on a case she knew nothing about.

Geo. Dodge, Sr., a well-known citizen of Emporium, writes that one of his men (Sam Lewis) while working in the woods so severely sprained his ankle that he could scarcely get home, but after using Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil, he was able to go to work next day.

Grandmother. Used to say, "Boys, if your blood is out of order try Burdock tea;" and they had to dig the Burdock and boil it down in kettles, making a nasty smelling decoction; now you get all the curative properties put up in a palatable form in Burdock Blood-Purifier. Price 31c, trial size 10 cents.

The explanation is given that Boston young ladies wear eye-glasses because they are too modest to go about with naked eyes.

See Sickness. The best remedy and preventative for the sickness is Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry. It is also the best remedy for all kinds of summer complaints, whether on sea or land it will not fail you. All drug stores sell it, 37c per bottle.

"When the spring time comes, gentle Annie prepare to jump." The weather in the Southern states is best at present than it is in New York.

Presumption begins in ignorance and ends in ruin. On the other hand, the production of Kidney-Wort begins with the most careful and scientific research, and its use ends in restoring shattered constitutions and endowing man and woman with health and happiness. "My tormentor," says a man who has been overworked and used to poor hardworking man and woman, do you know why it aches? It is because your kidneys are overworked and need your Kidney-Wort, and your system needs to be cleansed of bad humors. You need Kidney-Wort.
