

Arrival of the Steamship

Britannia.

The Steamship Britannia, arrived at Halifax on Monday last, in 15 days from Liverpool. The news in a commercial or political point of view, is unimportant. An outline of the latest intelligence will be found in our columns.

The south of Ireland, is still unsettled. Some outrages have occurred.

The Continental news is unimportant. France is tranquil; Vienna has been reduced to subjection, and the leaders in the insurrection executed. Prussia is verging on a civil war.

The government informers and witnesses in the late trials in Ireland, arrived at New York last week, in the ship Harriet Newell, Captain E. Lockwood.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT.—We regret to state that, on Monday evening, as Mr. John Smith, eldest son of Thomas M. Smith, Esq. was going on board the barque Sophia lying at the wharf of the Hon. John Robertson, of which vessel he was Chief Officer, he accidentally fell from the ladder between the ship and wharf into the water. Immediate means were used to save him, but the body was not recovered until an hour had elapsed when life had become extinct. He was in the 57th year of his age.—Observer.

GREAT RUN AND NARROW ESCAPE.—The Portsmouth Journal says, that the British schooner Teizer, Capt. Hodgkinson, left Bear Island N. S. on Saturday night last, at 8 o'clock, and in the short time of twenty-eight hours was inside of Boon Island. At two o'clock, in a thick north-east storm, let her anchor to leeward of Whale's Back-light, and rode out the gale. At the time the gale was so violent that the spray rose above Whale's Back-light-house. This is probably the first vessel that ever rode at anchor in that place in such a gale.

Mexico.—In the State of San Luis a revolutionary party, situated in the range of mountains known as La Sierra Gorda, and about 1500 strong calling themselves "Yankees," although not a single foreigner was among them, had resisted every attempt the government had made to dislodge them, and in their stronghold are impregnable, and determined to await the declaration of independence of La Sierra Madre, for which they are anxious.

MARRIED.—At Digdenash on the 24th ult. by the Rev John Cassin, A. M., Mr. John Murphy, to Miss Jane Brown.

At Suther Hall on the 7th inst. by the Rev Samuel Thomson, A. M., Rector of Saint George, Mr. Thorot Goss to Jane, eldest daughter of Hugh Matheson Esq. all of St. George.
