

ARTICLE IV.—MEMBERS.

SECT. 1.—Every candidate for membership shall be proposed by a member of the Society at any regular meeting. He shall then furnish the President and Secretary with evidence of his qualifications, and at the next regular meeting he may be elected.

SECT. 2.—The duties of members shall be:—to promote harmony in the profession; to endeavour to carry out the spirit of the Constitution and Bye-Laws; to practice their profession in accordance with the code of ethics which shall be adopted by this Society; and to submit all disputed questions to the Council of the Society for adjudication.

SECT. 3.—Any member may withdraw from the Society by giving proper notice to the Secretary in writing; all arrears of dues being first paid up.

SECT. 4.—All persons in the general practice of Medicine and Surgery in the county of Halifax, who, not being members (except Military and Naval Medical Officers,) shall practice contrary to the principles of this Society, shall be considered and treated as irregular practitioners.

ARTICLE V.—HONORARY MEMBERS.

SECT. 1.—Any gentleman eminent in Medicine, Surgery, or the Auxiliary sciences may be elected an honorary member of this Society.

SECT. 2.—Honorary members shall be entitled to all the privileges of membership.

ARTICLE VI.—EXPULSION.

SECT. 1.—Should any member be censured more than once by the Council for unprofessional conduct, he may be expelled from the Society by a two-third vote of the members present at any regular meeting.

SECT. 2.—Expulsion of a member shall imply the loss of all the privileges of membership; the erasure of his name from the roll of the Society; and that he be treated as an irregular practitioner.

ARTICLE VII.—ORDER OF BUSINESS.

SECT. 1.—At all the regular meetings of the Society—except the annual meeting—the business of the Society shall be divided into Scientific and General business.
