

FREE COPIES TO JANUARY 1, 1871, TO NEW SUBSCRIBERS. THE COUNTRY GENTLEMAN FOR 1871.

"The Best of all Agricultural Weeklies in America," says The Horticulturist, New York.
 "It has No Equal in the Entire Field of American Agricultural Journalism." Maine Farmer.

THE CULTIVATOR AND COUNTRY GENTLEMAN has been much enlarged and improved during the past year, and continues to maintain its former rank as the Standard Journal of American Agriculture, including all the departments connected with the cultivation of the soil for profit or pleasure, it is its aim to promote the best interests of its readers, to protect them from fraud and falsehood, — to provide them with the information most essential in their calling, — and, leaving to others the task of furnishing the transitory entertainment of the hour, to present a periodical of frequent issue, always fresh and seasonable, and especially adapted in every department to the practical wants of the Farmer and his Family.

In Extent of Correspondence — in Practical Suggestions — in Agricultural News — it is believed to be without an equal, and it should be placed in the hands of every farmer, fruit-grower and breeder in the country. For them, as well as for their wives and children, the interest and value of its contents have never been so great as now.

TERMS. — The terms are lower than those of any other paper of similar standing: One copy, $2.50 per year; Four copies, $9; Eight copies, $16.

All New Subscribers to THE CULTIVATOR AND COUNTRY GENTLEMAN for 1871, paying in advance, previous to the close of 1870, will receive the paper weekly, from receipt of remittance to January 1st, 1871, without charge.

Any person wishing to try the paper before subscribing will be supplied with copies regularly from date of application to Jan 1st, 1871, for the nominal price of 25 cents. Single numbers, as specimens, free.
