

Strangers and new comers feel at home with us.

Notes

Our Church Home has undergone repairs, and the building has been painted inside and out; pews stained in cherry to match the interior of Auditorium; new carpet on Pulpit, and oil-cloth in the pews. The Ladies Parlor re-papered, painted and oil-clothed. The Basement whitewashed, and walls color washed. New Lavatory and Church throughout wired for electricity; with two handsome electroliers and other branch fixtures; the whole costing about $1500.00, $390.00 of which will not be due until July 1st, 1901. The membership responded heartily, and already $652.00 has been contributed. The remainder is required at an early day and it is very desirable that every member young and old aid in securing this balance.

Special Offering Envelopes are in the pews, and the committee on repairs will gratefully acknowledge your offering through the Financial Secretary. Please place it on the collection plate, or give it to members of the committee.

The artistic painting and finish on our auditorium reflects great credit upon the firm of F. Reardon; also the good taste and judgment of the repair committee.

The Daily Bible Readings for the next four weeks are specially arranged for workers:—1st "Salvation for all." 2nd "Salvation by Faith." 3rd "How to believe." 4th "When to believe." Other subjects may follow. Study each passage—pray for the right opportunity to use them—may they prove a blessing.

The Missionary Prayer Service held Wednesday Ev'g, was well attended. Brother W. J. Gates, chairman of the convention fund committee, made a brief statement concerning the manner of raising the allotment for this year. "Systematic giving by all" to this end a printed statement setting forth the facts will be given to every member of the church and a hearty response is urged.

Applications for Sittings should be made to Deacon Jas McPherson. The seats are signed, not rented. Each holder of a sitting is expected to be a contributor.

THIS CHURCH IS SUPPORTED by the voluntary contributions of the people that is to say, every member of this church is covenanted voluntarily to subscribe towards the expenses of the church whatever sum it is in their power to give, and shall so inform the Financial Secretary, and from him receive envelopes for that purpose.
