

A GREAT MISSIONARY SERIES

The History of the Missionary Enterprise of
The Presbyterian Church in Canada.

THIRTEEN GRAPHIC ARTICLES.

THE Announcement is now made of a series of Articles to appear in the KNOX COLLEGE MONTHLY during 1891, giving an historical sketch, reliable and readable, of the Missionary Work of the Canadian Presbyterian Church in the different mission fields, home and foreign. These sketches will, in each case, be written out of full knowledge. The names of the writers will commend their work to the Church at large. A full and reliable account will be given of the establishment of each mission, its progress and present position, the personnel of the Staff, and such other information as may be helpful to students of missionary history. The attention of every one interested in the mission work of our Church should be called to these articles. The first is promised for the February number of the MONTHLY and the others will follow in regular order. As the articles will be copyrighted they cannot be republished elsewhere without special permission. Following is the list of subjects and writers so far arranged :—

The New Hebrides Mission.—The Rev. R. Murray, M.A., Editor of the Presbyterian Witness, Halifax, N.S.

The West Indies.—(To be announced later.)

Formosa.—The Rev. G. M. Milligan, B.A., Toronto, Member of the Foreign Mission Committee

Honan.—(To be announced later.)

Central India.—The Rev. Prof. MacLaren, D.D., Toronto, Member and ex-Convener of the Foreign Mission Committee.

The North-West Indians.—The Rev. A. B. Baird, M.A., B.D., Winnipeg.

The Luxton Mission to Negroes in Canada.—J. C. Hamilton, Q.C., LL.B., Toronto.

The French Evangelization.—Rev. Principal MacVicar, D.D., LL.D., Montreal, Chairman of the French Evangelization Board.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society.—Mrs. C. S. Ewart, Toronto, President of the Society,

The North-West and British Columbia.—The Rev. J. Robertson, D.D., Superintendent of Missions.

Ontario and Quebec.—The Rev. W. Cochrane, D.D., Brantford, Convener of Home Mission Committee.

The Maritime Provinces.—(To be announced later.)

The Students' Missionary Societies.—(To be announced later.)

These Articles will all appear in the MONTHLY during 1891. The statistics will be brought up to date, and a much fuller history given of each field than has ever yet been written of any one of them. Ministers should direct the attention of their congregations, especially their missionary associations, to this most important Announcement. To secure the full series new subscriptions should be sent in at once, as the supply of extra copies of each month's issue will be limited.

Subscription Price, One Dollar a Year, in Advance.
