Members of the Society are respectfully notified that their subscriptions ($2) are now due for the year 1871. From the above Statement it will be observed that many members are also in arrear for the year 1870.

All communications and remittances should be addressed to the Rev. C. J. S. BETHUNE, Trinity College School, Port Hope.

INCORPORATION OF THE ENTOMOLOGICAL SOCIETY.

Our readers will no doubt be pleased to learn that a bill is now before the Legislature of Ontario, for the incorporation of the Entomological Society, under the Agricultural and Arts Act. The effect will be to place it upon the same footing as the Fruit-Growers' Association of Ontario, with an annual grant of $500 per annum.

A general meeting of the Society will be called as soon as the bill has passed the Legislature. We shall refer to the matter at greater length in our next issue.

SIXTH ANNUAL REPORT OF THE LONDON BRANCH OF THE ENTOMOLOGICAL SOCIETY OF CANADA, FOR THE YEAR ENDING DECEMBER 31ST, 1870.

At the close of another year it becomes the pleasing duty of your Committee to present this the Sixth Annual Report.

The past season has been a favourable one for the Society. Our financial Report exhibits a good balance in hand after payment of all current expenses. Owing to the generous support the Society continues to receive, our roll of members still contains thirty-three names. Again we would thank our friends for their continued assistance to this the only Scientific Society at present existing in the "Forest City." With the liberal donation of the Parent Society we have been enabled to purchase a magnificent cabinet. To prepare it for the reception of insects will be a work of some little time, but we trust in due course to see its drawers gradually filled with choice specimens from all quarters. London has fairly earned a provincial reputation for its Entomological collections. At the Western Fair held in September, four prizes were obtained by our members, and the proceeds as usual transferred to our Treasury. Efforts have been recently made to induce the Society to
