Mercantile Summary.—Subscribers who do not regularly receive their papers will please notify us immediately.
We find it impossible to supply the demand for back numbers.—Among the recent business changes in this city we notice that the firm of Walter Wilson & Co., Dominion agents for Clark's Elephant Spool Cotton and Wm. Barbour & Sons' Irish Flax Thread, has been strengthened by the admission to the partnership of Mr. James Reid Wilson, late of Messrs. Chas. Wilson & Co., Glasgow, Scotland, and brother of Mr. Walter Wilson, hitherto composing the firm of Walter Wilson & Co. of Montreal. The style of the firm remains the same.—The many friends of Mr. D. C. Shears, formerly of the Rossin house, Toronto, will be glad to learn that he has leased the premises number 85 York street, known as the "Club" Chambers, which were opened to the public on the 1st December. The apartments of the new building are furnished in a luxurious manner, and are convenient of access by means of a passenger elevator of the new improved style.
We bespeak for the "Club" Chambers a degree of success commensurate with the taste and experience of the proprietor. The numerous patrons of the Rossin House can bear testimony to the superiority of its cuisine, which has, to say the least, a continent-wide reputation.
