

Literary Notes.

The Chap-Book has been sold to Messrs. H. S. Stone and Company, and all subscriptions and other matter for it should be sent to 334 Dearborn Street, Chicago.

Stone & Kimball announce that they have transferred their entire business to 139 Fifth Avenue, New York, and that all communications should be addressed to them there.

Readers of "Pierre and his People" will be glad to know that Stone & Kimball are about to publish a new volume of short stories by Gilbert Parker under the title of "An Adventurer of the North," being the further and final adventures of Pierre and his people.

Mr. John Davidson has written a book of short stories called, "Miss Armstrong's and Other Circumstances," which will shortly be published by Stone & Kimball. This announcement is peculiarly interesting in the light of the recognition that Mr. Davidson has received as one of the greater "minor poets."

Messrs. Henry Holt & Co. will publish immediately "The Way They Loved at Grimpat; Village Idylls," by E. Rentoul Esler. It is a volume of love stories of peculiar charm. Mr. S. R. Crockett says of them: "A book this to read and re-read, to lay aside for six months in a drawer, and then, upon re-discovery, to welcome with joy, and sit down to read all over again."

Messrs. Houghton, Mifflin & Co will publish, on June 6th, Tennyson's "The Coming of Arthur and Other Idylls of the King" as volume eight of Rolfe's Students' Series. Price 75 cents; to teachers, 53 cents. The Idylls contained in this book are The Dedication, The Coming of Arthur, Gareth and Lynette, The Marriage of Geraint, Geraint and Enid, Balin and Balan, and Merlin and Vivien. Dr. Rolfe has brought to the work the same ability and care that has made the other volumes of this series valuable to the student and teacher. The notes include the history of the poems, the "various readings," and explanations of all obscurities, allusions, etc. There is a frontispiece portrait of Lord Tennyson taken from the photograph by Mrs. Cameron. This edition of "The Idylls of the King" which will be completed in August by the publication of "Lancelot and Elaine and Other Idylls of the King," as volume nine of the same series, will be the first annotated edition of the entire series of Idylls published in this country or in Europe.

Any doctor will tell you that Professor Hare, of Jefferson Medical College, Philadelphia, is one of the highest authorities in the world on the action of drugs. In his last work, speaking of the treatment of scrofula, he says:

"It is hardly necessary to state that cod-liver oil is the best remedy of all. The oil should be given in emulsion, so prepared as to be palatable."

He also says that the hypophosphites should be combined with the oil.

Scott's Emulsion of cod-liver oil, with hypophosphites, is precisely such a preparation.

Fiction.

Short stories by Villiers de l'Isle Adam,—"THE ELECT OF DREAMS" and "THE BETTER LOVE," both marked by the finished touch, suggestive diction, and implicit censure of materialism which characterize this modern French artist's work.

Present Day Poetry.

"TALIESIN," by Richard Hovey. It speaks well for the good taste of POET-LORE that it publishes "Talesin: a Mask in Three Movements," by Richard Hovey—a poet of strong originality. It contains some of his best work, and is marked by that poetic elevation of thought which is characteristic of the writer.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.
