

Section 31

(1) Any dispute between the Organization and the Government of Canada concerning the interpretation or application of this Agreement or of any supplementary agreement, which is not settled by negotiation or other agreed mode of settlement, shall be referred for final decision to a tribunal of three arbitrators, one to be named by the President of the Council of the Organization, one to be named by the Secretary of State for External Affairs, and the third to be chosen by the two, or, if they should fail to agree upon a third, then by the President of the International Court of Justice.

(2) The President of the Council of the Organization or the Government of Canada may ask the Assembly of the Organization to request of the International Court of Justice an advisory opinion on any legal question arising in the course of the arbitral proceedings. Pending the receipt of the opinion of the Court, an interim decision of the arbitral tribunal shall be observed by both parties. Thereafter, the arbitral tribunal shall render a final decision having regard to the opinion of the Court.
