

Shellfish, n.e.s., fresh or frozen	884	103	1,356	184
Herring, frozen whole or dressed	1,192	1,181	1,067	1,252
Shrimps and prawns, fresh or frozen	1,941	517	1,058	126
Crabs, canned	1,073	69	1,018	27
TOTAL*	444,277	80,526	484,009	60,639

*Statistics Canada reports shipments of following products in addition to the above during 1986 and 1987:

cod, blocks and slabs frozen; Pacific halibut, fresh whole or dressed; halibut, blocks and slabs, frozen; haddock or hake, fresh whole or dressed; sole, flounder, fillets frozen; flatfish, nes, fillets fresh; turbot, fillets frozen; turbot, blocks and slabs frozen; ocean perch, fresh whole or dressed; ocean perch, blocks and slabs, frozen; pollock, blocks and slabs, frozen; sea fish, nes, fresh whole or dressed; sea fish, nes, fillets fresh; sea fish, nes, blocks, etc. frozen; fish, nes, salted or dried; fish, nes, pickled; fish, nes, smoked; fish, nes, roe; fish and fish products, nes, canned; herring, fresh whole or dressed; herring, fillets frozen; herring, boneless smoked; mackerel, frozen whole or dressed; sea smelt, frozen whole or dressed; Atlantic Salmon, fresh whole or dressed; coho salmon, canned; spring salmon, fresh whole or dressed; salmon, nes, fresh whole or dressed; salmon, nes, canned; chum salmon, canned; pink salmon, canned; salmon, pickled; lobster, meat fresh chilled or boiled; lobster, canned; squid, whole fresh or frozen; squid, tubes, fresh or frozen; scallops, frozen; shellfish and products, nes; freshwater fish, nes, fresh whole or dressed; freshwater fish, nes, frozen whole or dressed; freshwater fish, nes, fillets frozen; freshwater fish, nes, blocks etc. frozen.

POST NOTES GOOD PROSPECTS FOR FOLLOWING PRODUCTS (with 1987 imports in Cdn$): Pacific herring roe ($156 million); salmon ($730 million); crab ($309 million); Atlantic herring roe ($63 million); capelin ($80 million); lobster ($10 million); redfish ($30 million); black cod ($120 million); smelt ($5 million); salmon roe ($110 million).

OTHER PROSPECTS: sea urchin, clams (geoduck, surf), northern shrimp, bluefin tuna.

ACCESS CONDITIONS:

PRICES AND TERMS: Prices and terms vary according to buyers and types of products. For many of the commodities imported by trading firms for further processing in Japan (eg capelin, frozen herring