

General Assembly and to the Security Council not later than 1 September 1954;

Further suggests to the Disarmament Commission in order to facilitate the progress of its work, to arrange for the sub-committee, when established, to hold its private meetings as appropriate in the distant countries most concerned with the problem.

R/C

May, 1954