

- (b) In an antidumping or countervailing duty investigation, where a Party's authority has made a preliminary affirmative determination of dumping or subsidisation and injury caused by that dumping or subsidisation, that Party shall afford due consideration, and adequate opportunity for consultations, to exporters of the other Party regarding proposed undertakings which, if accepted, may result in suspension of the investigation without imposition of antidumping or countervailing duties, through the means provided for in the Party's domestic laws and procedures.

Section C – Committee on Trade Remedies

Article 7.8: Committee on Trade Remedies

1. The Parties hereby establish a Committee on Trade Remedies, composed of representatives at an appropriate level from relevant agencies of each Party who have responsibility for trade remedies matters, including antidumping, subsidies and countervailing measures, and safeguards issues.
2. The functions of the Committee, which operates on the basis of consensus in respect of all matters, are to:
 - (a) enhance each Party's knowledge and understanding of the other's domestic trade remedy laws, policies, and practices;
 - (b) oversee implementation of this Chapter, including compliance with Articles 7.7.2 and 7.7.4;
 - (c) improve cooperation between the Parties' agencies having responsibility for trade remedies matters;
 - (d) provide a forum for the Parties to exchange information on issues relating to trade remedies matters;
 - (e) establish and oversee the development of educational programs related to the administration of trade remedy law for officials of both Parties; and
 - (f) provide a forum for the Parties to discuss other relevant topics of mutual interest, including:
 - (i) international issues relating to trade remedies, including issues relating to international trade negotiations; and
