

- (ii) Home port.
 - (iii) Radio call sign or vessel identification marking that identifies the flag state of the vessel (“Vessel Identification Marking”),
 - (iv) Fishing vessel registration number.
 - (v) Captain or operator’s name, if known, and
 - (vi) Vessel length.
- (c) For Canada, the list of vessels for each fishing season shall be transmitted to the United States by June 1, 2017, June 1, 2018 and June 1, 2019. For the United States, a provisional list of vessels for each fishing season shall be transmitted to Canada by July 1, 2017, July 1, 2018, and July 1, 2019. The list of U.S. vessels may be revised during those fishing seasons.
- (d) With regard to Canada’s Seasonal List, the list shall remain fixed for each of the fishing seasons as defined in paragraph 2 of Annex C and thereafter. The Canadian Government shall not add or replace vessels on its Seasonal List during the fishing season except pursuant to paragraph 1(e) or (f).
- (e) In the event of force majeure or other exceptional circumstances that occur during the 2017, 2018 or 2019 fishing seasons, a captain or owner of a vessel on Canada’s Seasonal List may make a request to the Canadian Government for the replacement of the captain or owner’s vessel by another vessel in that season. If such a request is received by the Canadian Government, the Parties to this Treaty shall refer the request to an ad hoc panel established pursuant to the process in paragraph 1(f) that shall approve the request provided that the replacement vessel meets the criteria set out in paragraph 1(f).
- (f) If a request for vessel replacement by the owner of a Canadian vessel on Canada’s Seasonal List is received by the Canadian Government prior to the commencement of the 2017, 2018 or 2019 fishing seasons, the Parties to this Treaty shall convene, in a timely manner, an ad hoc panel to review the request and determine whether the request is warranted and, if so, to grant the request in accordance with the following criteria:
- The replacement vessel has an enforcement record acceptable to the Parties;
