

Income Ceilings and Exemptions

ONTARIO

Program
Family Benefits (Provincial)

Available to:

- persons 65 years and over not receiving Old Age Security, widows and single women 60-65 years old, women 60 years of age whose husbands are in a sanatorium, mental hospital, chronic hospital, nursing home or home for the aged, for 6 months or more, women whose husbands have deserted for 3 months or more, or are in prison with six months to serve, who are at work or have been separated from their husbands for 5 years or more, blind or disabled persons over 18 years of age, mothers with dependent children who are divorced or have been deserted 3 months or more, have been deserted by a husband who was a dependent father, whose husbands are patients in T.B. sanatorium, hospitals or similar institutions, whose husbands are in jail with 6 months to serve,

Definition of Income

All income is assessed in determining need including:

- Old Age Security, benefits under Pension Act (Canada)
Unemployment Insurance,
War Veterans Allowances,
Civil War pensions and allowances,
Workmen's Compensation,
Canada Pension Plan,
maintenance allowances for training programs,
foreign pensions and payments,
regular or periodic payments from annuities,
pension plans,
superannuation,
insurance,
payments under
separation agreements,
divorce settlements,
payments under
court orders,
support agreements,
gross salaries, wages and casual earnings,
gross room or lodging receipts,

Exemptions

Exemptions include:

- Family and Youth Allowances, General Welfare Assistance, child welfare maintenance payments, donations from religious, charitable or benevolent organizations, casual gifts of small value,
from wages and salaries:

No. of children	one adult	two adults
0	$24.00	$ 36.00
1	36.00	48.00
2	48.00	60.00
3	60.00	72.00
4	72.00	84.00
5	84.00	96.00
6	96.00	108.00

Each additional child add

$12.00 $ 12.00

40 per cent of room receipts (but must not reduce income below $10 per person per month),

60 per cent of board receipts (but must not reduce income for per-