electoral district of Yukon, and it sets out what seem to me to be very convincing reasons. They say among other things:

That your petitioners prefer to have the representation of Mackenzie district to parliament postponed and to remain for the present without such representation rather than to have the district included with the electoral district of Yukon.

They go on to ask that the words "including the Mackenzie district of the Northwest Territories" in section 2 of Bill No. 18 be struck out.

year, I hold in this house a unique record, because it would appear that I was born on September 26, 1937, and that I was married when four days old, that is on September 30, 1937.

Mr. SPEAKER: Order. The hon. member is referring to a book which is not considered as a document of this house. Therefore, he cannot avail himself of his privileges as a member to request that a correction be made in that book.

Mr. CAOUETTE: May I at least be permitted to point out that I was born in 1917?

Mr. SPEAKER: I am sorry. I have called the hon. member to order because he cannot avail himself of his rights as a member to make a correction in a book which is not recognized as an official document.
