

An hon. Member: This is an emergency.

Mr. McIlraith: Standing order 6 (2) provides that:

A motion that the house continue to sit after the hour specified in section (1) may be made at any time without notice. If any member objects to the motion, Mr. Speaker shall request those members who object to rise in their places and if 10 or more members then rise, the question shall not be put on the motion.

The motion is not debatable.

Mr. Speaker: I thank the hon. minister for his assistance. I was about to read standing order 6 (2) to hon. members. It was done on my behalf. Hon. members know the rule; it is that if any member objects to the motion, Mr. Speaker shall request those members who object to rise in their places and if 10 or more members then rise, the question shall not be put on the motion.

Mr. Douglas: Mr. Speaker—

Mr. Speaker: The motion, of course, is not debatable.

Mr. Douglas: I am not debating the motion, Mr. Speaker. I just wish to say that I objected on the ground I feel the government should have time to consider the recommendations we have made.

Mr. Speaker: Order, please. The rule does not provide for explanations as to why an hon. member objects. He can only rise and object. Is there an objection? If so it will be registered by hon. members.

Some hon. Members: Shame.

An hon. Member: Let us get back to work.

Mr. Speaker: If 10 hon. members rise, the question shall not be put.

And more than ten members having risen:

Some hon. Members: Question.

Mr. Speaker: Is the house ready for the question? The hon. member for Nickel Belt.

Mr. Norman Fawcett (Nickel Belt): Mr. Speaker, it seems that every time I am on the floor I hear this roar of a filibuster from the other side.

An hon. Member: You have never been up before.

Mr. Fawcett: There is too much filibuster. I would like to say, Mr. Speaker, that I think perhaps I am better qualified to speak for the railroaders than anyone else in this house. It is quite obvious that particularly some of the hon. members on the other side do not want to hear a railroader's point of view. However, I will put it on the record. I was a railroader for 25 years and I have worked with other railroaders. For 15 years I represented one of the unions participating in this strike. I therefore think I am qualified to give some explanation regarding my knowledge of this situation.

Mr. Speaker: Order, please. May I suggest to hon. members that there are too many conversations taking place at the present time. This makes it difficult to follow the speech being made by the hon. member for Nickel Belt.

Mr. Fawcett: May I call it ten o'clock? Mr. Speaker?

Mr. Speaker: Order, please.

Mr. Fawcett: My colleague tells me I will have to say I am a railroader all over again. I can do so, but I can assure hon. members that when I come back tomorrow I will probably tell you this all over again as well. My colleague, the hon. member for York South (Mr. Lewis) as well as my leader, the hon. member for Burnaby-Coquitlam (Mr. Douglas) both made the remark today that railroaders do not like strikes. Mr. Speaker, I think it is now ten o'clock.

PROCEEDINGS ON ADJOURNMENT MOTION

A motion to adjourn the house under provisional standing order 39(A) deemed to have been moved.

CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY—REPORTED STATEMENT RESPECTING PENSION RIGHTS OF STRIKERS

Mr. Stanley Knowles (Winnipeg North Centre): Mr. Speaker, I addressed a question to the Minister of Labour (Mr. Nicholson) on the orders of the day this afternoon and it is in connection with this matter that I should like to say a few words, in the hope that he might amplify the answer which he gave. The answer was in itself satisfactory but I do feel—

Mr. Nicholson: Will the hon. member permit a question? I think I am reasonably familiar with the Industrial Relations and Disputes Investigation Act to which the hon. member made reference. Would he draw my
