

November 21, 1932.

Dean Ira A. MacKay,
Faculty of Arts and Science.

Dear Dean MacKay,

In reply to the letter of the 19th which I have from you and the visit of Adair to Warsaw next summer, I quite agree with what you say. I think that probably $500 was altogether too generous an allowance to Professor Waugh. Adair did not ask me for an allowance, but I took occasion to tell him that we could not promise to pay his expenses from England to Warsaw but that if possible we would make some contribution towards them. He told me that in any event he was going to spend the summer in the Old Country.

Ever yours faithfully,

Principal