

Great Britain and the United States, concluded at Washington on the 5th of June, 1854, upon the coasts of the United States and Her Britannic Majesty's Dominions, as places reserved from the common right of fishing under that treaty, shall be regarded as in like manner reserved from the common right of fishing under the preceding articles. In case any question should arise between the Governments of Her Britannic Majesty and of the United States as to the common right of fishing in places not thus designated as reserved, it is agreed that a Commission shall be appointed to designate such places, and shall be constituted in the same manner, and have the same powers, duties, and authority, as the Commission appointed under the said first article of the Treaty of the 5th of June, 1854.

ARTICLE V.

It is agreed that the Articles enumerated in Schedules A, B and C, hereunto annexed, being the growth, produce, or manufacture of the Dominion of Canada, or of the United States, shall, on their importation from the one country into the other, from the first day of July, 1875, to the 30th day of June, 1876, (both included) pay only two-thirds of the duties payable at the date of this Treaty on the importation into such country of such articles respectively; and from the 1st day of July, 1876, to the 30th day of June, 1877, (both included), shall pay only one-third of such duties; and on and after the first day of July, 1877, for the period of years mentioned in Article XIII of this Treaty, shall be admitted free of duty into each country respectively.

For the term mentioned in Article XIII no other or higher duty shall be imposed in the United States upon other articles not enumerated in said Schedules, the growth, produce, or manufacture of Canada, or in Canada, upon such other articles the growth, produce, or manufacture of the United States, than are respectively imposed upon like articles the growth, produce, or manufacture of Great Britain or any other country.
