

CHAPTER IX.

1800-1807.

	PAGE
Administration of Vice-Admiral Pole	219
Administration of Vice-Admiral Gambier	221
Educational Arrangements	223
Accounts of the native Indians	227
Administration of Sir Erasmus Gower	231
Statistics for 1804—Ship-building, &c.	233
Introduction of the Post-office	241
The First Newspaper	243
Benevolent Associations, 1806	245

CHAPTER X.

1807-1812.

Administration of Admiral Holloway	247
The Berlin Decree and the Fish Trade	249
Permanent Judicial Establishments	251
Ecclesiastical Destitution	255
Administration of Admiral Duckworth	257
Burial Rights	259
Buchan's Expedition to the Indians	263
Institution of a Fire Society	265
Leasing of Ships' Fishing-rooms	267

CHAPTER XI.

1812-1818.

Admiral Duckworth's Report	277
Encouragement to the Cultivation of the Soil, 1813	281
Questions arising from Desertion and Impresment	285
Dr. Carson's Pamphlets	289,90
Excited Political Feeling	292
Threatening Letter to Chief Justice Colcough	293,4
Irish Factions in St. John's	295-7
End of Governor Keats's Administration	297