

	PAGE.
1750. June 22. Gov. Wentworth to Gov. Clinton, is not disposed to have any dispute with New York; proposes a reference of the matter to England,	333
July 25. Gov. Clinton to Gov. Wentworth; accepts the reference, proposes to exchange representations with New Hampshire,	334
Sept. 2. Gov. Wentworth to Gov. Clinton; accepts the offer to exchange, and promises to communicate a copy of his representation when perfect,	384
1751. Oct. Report of the Attorney-General of New York on the case between the latter province and New Hampshire respecting their boundary,	384
Oct. 14. Cadwallader Colden's observations on the Attorney-General's report,	330
1752. Aug. 14. Extract from the report of the Attorney and Solicitor-General on the state of the case with respect to certain townships in New England,	340
Dec. 22. Secretary of the Board of Trade to the agent for the Province of New York, (enclosing,).	340
1751. Mar. 23. Extract of a letter from Benning Wentworth, governor of New Hampshire, to the Board of Trade, containing his proposal that the line of New Hampshire run as far west as that of Massachusetts,	341
1753. Nov. 14. Report of the committee of the Provincial Council, and the commissioners on the eastern boundary, of New York, in answer to Gov. Wentworth's letter to the Board of Trade,	341
1750. Sept. 31. Proclamation of the Lieut. Governor of New York for forming settlements between Fort Edward and Lake George,	345
1753. Mar. 15. Affidavit of Alex. McLean to the effect that New Hampshire is laying out lands at Crown Point and on the east of Lake Champlain,	340
Dec. 28. Proclamation of Lieut. Gov. Colden, asserting the Connecticut River to be the east bounds of the Prov. of New York,	340
1764. Jan. 20. Lt. Gov. Colden to the Board of Trade, reviewing the dispute between New York and New Hampshire, and sustaining the claim of the former to the territory in question,	348
Feb. 8. The same to the same; remonstrating further against the most surprising and extravagant encroachments of New Hampshire, which has already granted 160 townships west of the Connecticut River; encloses copy of his proclamation,	351
Mar. 13. Counter proclamation of Gov. Wentworth in vindication of the New Hampshire grants,	353
April 12. Lt. Gov. Colden to the Board of Trade, enclosing copy of Gov. Wentworth's proclamation whose grants are hawking around New Jersey, &c., at low rates for the purpose of raising money, asks for a speedy decision, as he wishes to settle the discharged soldiers in the vicinity of Lake Champlain,	354
July 20. Order of the king in council declaring the Connecticut river the boundary between New York and New Hampshire,	355
Aug. Sheriff Schuyler to Lt. Gov. Colden; the New Hampshire people have ejected several farmers in Hoosic out of possession of their lands; some of the aggressors arrested,	356
Sept. 4. Minute of council; Gov. Wentworth complains of the arrest of sundry inhabitants of the town of Pownal by the sheriff of Albany, and signifies his disposition to submit the question of jurisdiction to the king; the Lt. Governor of New York advised to decline interfering in the matter, as the question is already before his Majesty,	350
1765. May 22. Order of the government of New York in favor of the occupants of New Hampshire who settled before this date,	357
Oct. 9. Petition praying that the northern part of the Province be divided into five counties,	358
15. Another praying for the erection of a new county on the Connecticut river,	350
22. Another on the same subject,	360
Report of the Council of New York on the preceding petitions,	361
Dec. 18. Return of the names of the several persons living in the townships of Pownal, Bennington, Shaftesbury, Arlington, Sunderland, Manchester, Draper and Danbey,	361