FOREIGN CROPS IN

LIVERPOOL, Feb. 18.—The market opened very steady, 4d to 4d higher, with prominent buying of July and following there was a further advance. The reports of Russia buying Argentine wheat for milling purposes and the strained relations between Russia and A astria, which in some puarters are considered crifical, caused few offerings. There were fewer and dearer Canadian offerings, and Plate offerings are more firmly held. Spot markets are firm and cargoes in good request with millers and continued dull during the morning. The strength in America offset the more favorable indian news.

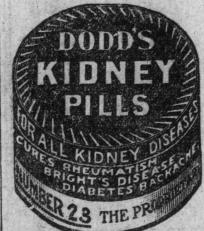

Corn opened unchanged and continued dull during the morning. The strength in America offset the more favorable crop news from Argentine.

The sheep and sambs finarhet relations strong. Sheep, ewes, sold at from $5.50 to $6 per cwt.; rams, $5 to $5.60; but few brought the lat-strong stook and following the lat-strong strength of the price.

Hogs.

The hog market was decidedly easier, adopt of 25c per cwt. taking place, $9 being the top price reported; nor do we think that that price was at any one time exceeded during the day. Selects sold at $9, fed and watered, and $3.65 to $6.75; two loads at the latter price; cows at $3 to $5.75; bulls, $4.60 to $5.40; milkers, $35 to $68; lambs at $9; three decks of hogs at $9 per cwt., fed and watered.
