BILL BROWN IS CAPTAIN.
At a meeting of the Varsity track team held on Thursday morning, after the team's picture had been taken, it was decided unanimously that the position of captain of the team should be filled by W. E. Brown for the season of 1913-14. After being elected to this position, "Bill" gave a short address to the members of the team, in which he said that a little harder work would be more than sufficient to meet the strengthening which it was expected McGill would make next year.

TO TURN FIRST SOD.

The first sod for the new building of Dian Loyal Orange Lodge (2054) at 132 Rhodes avenue will be turned by R. W. Bro. Fred Dane, grand master of Ontario West, this afternoon. Many prominent speakers will deliver addresses and the brothers expect a large attendance. Refreshments will be served during the afternoon.
