CAMBRIDGE, Mass., April 17.—The runners of Oxford University who are to compete in the four-mile relay race at the University of Pennsylvania games next week, practiced on the stadium track today, jogging around the cinder path on which the world's amateur record of 4 minutes 15 2-5 seconds for a mile was made by John Paul Jones. They made no attempt at speed. Norman S. Taber ran the longest distance, a mile and a half, the others stopping after they had covered a mile. The track was heavy from recent rains.

The visitors were received with warm hospitality by undergraduates and officials of Harvard. They had luncheon at the Varsity Club, and during the afternoon watched the competition in the annual spring interclass track games. The juniors won, with the seniors second.
The Oxonians returned to Providence tonight.
