

Hear, Hear, for the Spring of 1895,

Creighton, The Tailor

Is always to the front with a Large Stock of New Goods, both Spring and Summer, the finest ever shown in Victoria, of all shades, patterns and colors.

All who wish a fine fitting suit at a very low price just call and see them as I intend to sell for cash and by doing so will sell at lower figures than ever before.

J. W. CREIGHTON'S

Fine Tailoring Parlors,

86 Government St.,

Victoria, B. C.