

kinds, viz: Active, Associate, Honorary, and Life Members.

Any man who is a member in good standing of an evangelical church may become an Active but not an Associate member, by payment, in advance, of Ten Shillings annually. Active members only shall have the right to vote and be eligible to office; and it shall be their particular duty to carry out the objects of this Association.

Any man of good moral character may become an Associate member, by the payment, in advance, of Five Shillings annually. Associate members shall be entitled to all the privileges of the Association, except those of voting and being eligible to office.

Any member of this association, or any person eligible for membership, may become a Life Member by the payment, at any one time, of Ten Pounds currency.

The several Ministers of the evangelical churches in this town, for the time being, shall be Honorary Members of this Association.

ARTICLE 4th.

The officers of this association shall consist of a President, two Vice Presidents, Secretary, Treasurer, Librarian, and a standing Committee of five, comprising, as far as possible, members of each evangelical denomination, all of whom shall be chosen annually, by ballot. A nominating Committee of one Active Member from each denomination represented in the association, to recommend the names of persons for all the above offices, shall be appointed annually by the association, and at
