WOODBINE GOSSIP.

The track was in poor condition yesday morning, but most of the horses at the Woodbine were given exercise gallops. Several local prospective candidates for the King's Plate were worked easy halves.

Interest is increasing in the schooling of several well-known horses now at the track, which are taken over the fences at the Hunt Club. Pills will be schooled at the jumps to-day. Half-a-Crown schooled well at the jumps.

Jockey Pete Hagan schooled Ted yesterday. Tom Williams, another steeplechase rider, joined the Woodbine's contingent yesterday.

Eddie Reynolds arrived from Lexington, Ky., yesterday. This apprentice rider from the Chinn stable expects to ride this season in the Canadian circuit.

HORSE SHOW PROGRAM.

A Splendid Bill of Fare for the Coming Equine Exhibition.

The program of the Canadian and Military Horse Show has been issued. It follows the style used at the New York Horse Show, giving the time, class and number of entries in each event. And on the whole it provides splendid competition. Opening Tuesday evening, it will be necessary to hold a morning session on Wednesday to work in all the classes on the afternoons and evenings following, till Saturday, when three performances will again be given, the morning one devoted especially to ponies and other events of interest to children.

The committee also insist that the program will be lived up to, so that there will be no delays, and as the events are splendidly varied, there will be constant change of scene and entertainment every afternoon and evening.

The sale of reserved seats opened with a rush yesterday, and every day improves the prospects of what is now sure to be the greatest horse show in the history of Canada.

Riverdale Cricket Club.

An enthusiastic annual general meeting of Riverdale Cricket Club was held on Tuesday evening.

The report presented was considered very satisfactory, the club having had a good season last year and the prospects for 1910 are excellent. The following officers were duly elected:

Captain, A. Pickersgill; vice-captain, G. Skelton; treasurer, H. Tuck; committee, Messrs. R. P. Stephenson, P. Bland, I. Pearson; hon. secretary, J. Duguid, 21 West Gerrard-street, who has a few open dates in May and September.
