RESOLUTE WINS DECIDING RACE

after the race that he would build a new challenger and come across again in 1922 to have another try at afting the America's Cup, provided some other yachtsman did not challenge and win the cup sooner.

"I was beaten by a better boat," he said. "I have no complaint to make, but I am greatly disappointed."

Two Races in One.

In some ways the race was one of the most exciting of the series first because in its early stages Shamrock suddenly seemed to come to life and leave Resolute in a beat to windward, and second, after Resolute had established her supremacy, thru the uncertainty as to whether she would be able to finish inside the time limit. There were therefore two races in one. At noon it looked as if all hands would have to come out the following day, and it was not until half an hour before the expiration of the waiting period that a breeze finally came in from the south southwest. The committee promptly seized upon the from the south southwest. The com from the south southwest. The committee promptly selzed upon the three knot affair to start the yachts for the windward mark.

Shamrock won all the honors of the start. Resolute started in a very bad pocket underneath Shamrock. The green boat had everything her own way for the first fifteen minutes.

The wind was scarcely more than three knots at the start, and both yachts failed to reach the line before to handleap limit of two minutes exte handlcap limit of two minutes expired. Shamrock was the first to cross. pired. Shamrock was the first to cross, followed 40 seconds later by the defender. Both crossed to the starboard tack, and Shamrock being 50 yards to windward immediately tacked to port. Resolute followed, and to the surprise of all, began to fall off to leeward.

The yachts had not been sailing 10 minutes before a tow of barges loomed up ahead. Resolute had to tack to avoid them, but for some reason Shamrock, instead of tacking also and following the old adage "always keep between your opponent and the mark." kept on and Resolute, having her wind free, held off shore and kept clear of Shamrock thereafter. Shamrock was widently heading for a better draft of air under the Jersey shore, but she failed to find it, while Resolute picked up a favorable slant off shore. Still an hour after the start Shamrock was well in the lead and seemed able to following the old adage "always keep well in the lead and seemed able to head a couple of points nearer the wind.
