The Noted Lecturer Mrs. Margaret J. Blair Will Be Here Monday

That emiling apostle of Health, Beauty, and the Home will again give her intensely interesting talks and demonstrations in our Tea Room, Fifth Floor, beginning Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

Mrs. Blair comes to us direct from New York, where she has conducted a most successful lecture course on such subjects as "Dressing for Beauty," "The House We Live In," "Dancing for Health," and others equally absorbing

For twenty years Mrs. Blair was Director of the Domestic Art Department of the University of Minnesota, where her work was such that to-day she is recognized as an authority throughout the United States and Canada on the particular subjects on which she lectures. Especially which she lectures. Especially is she competent to speak on dress and the important part it plays. Naturally, to have dress becoming, one must have style of figure and health, and the lecturer goes into these subjects in a most illuminating and convincing manner. She shows how different types and completions manner. She shows how dif-ferent types and complexions should be costumed, how the furnishings in a room should harmonize with the people who live in them and other topics sure to make a strong appeal to those who wish to look their best, keep fit, and laye, their home surrough. have their home surroundings artistic and harmonious.

Take centre elevators to Fifth Floor and hear a lecture that will be found profitable and entertaining.
